British Will Use Rocket Bombers In Java Fighting

Massacre of R.A.F. Men Leads to Drastic Action—Capture of Soerabaja Seems Near

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 24 (AP).—The British virtually completed capture of Soerabaja tonight, but were battling powerful Indonesian forces in at least two other areas of Java and were reported to have set the torch to native settlements in one locality in retaliation for mutilation of captured British troops.

The latter measure, coupled with a disclosure that the British were ready to go into action tomorrow with rocket-filled Mosquito bombers, indicated that the British were adopting a stern attitude as a result of a wave of massacres during the past few days.

The incidents which were said to have caused the British to get "tough" included the slaying and dismembering of 25 occupants of a transport plane which was forced down; the massacre of 11 Gurkhas guarding a supply train en route from Batavia to Bandoeng, and the killing or wounding of 32 women and children in an internment camp.

Heavy fighting was reported in Central Java at Semarang and Ambarawa. In Soerabaja the British blasted Indonesian positions with Sherman tanks to advance more than a mile in the two-week-old battle for the big naval base.

ONLY SOUTHERN SUBURB TO BE TAKEN

The new gains placed the British in control of Soerabaja's prosperous residential area of Simpang and left only the southern suburb of Darmo to be taken.

"There is every sign that the Indonesians have pulled out," a British spokesman said. "For the most part we are encountering only scattered and half-hearted resistance from occasional snipers and machine guns."

A captured Indonesian lieutenant estimated Nationalist casualties in the Soerabaja fighting at around five thousand.

The burning of native settlements was ordered by a British brigadier, the Dutch news agency Aneta reported, after a searching party found the mutilated bodies of five R.A.F. crew members and 20 Indian soldiers whose plane had crash-landed yesterday six miles from Batavia.

Warns of Crisis

United States Secretary of the Army Artemus Gates, on an inspection tour in North China, gave warning that "the American public is not generally aware of the serious situation in China and the possibility of involvement of United States forces."

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1945, by Southam Co.)

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The difficulties in the way of abatement of sovereignty as a prerequisite of world peace are pointed out by The Times today in a review of foreign policy debate just concluded in the Commons.

Both Bevin and Eden pointed to the necessity for a merger of sovereignty, and the role the United Nations Organization could play in bringing this aspiration one step nearer.

Bevin is praised for the plea that every effort should be made to work the United Nations Organization in the form in which it emerged from San Francisco, as nothing but harm could come from attempts now to pull it to pieces and refashion it. But, The Times says, the danger of over-simplification is serious. The difficulties are real and imperfections have to be tolerated.

It is pointed out that representative institutions familiar in the English-speaking world never have been understood in the greater part of the world, and The Times holds that any vision of a Federal World Government, operating on the model of the United States or British Dominions, is so remote from practical politics that too much contemplation of it is more likely to impede than assist the progress of real advance toward it that can be achieved by common and patient endeavor.

The most important first step in this direction is to recognize and measure differences in habits and traditions dividing nations before they can be bridged.

In reference to Bevin's outspoken invitation to Russia to place all the cards on the table, The Times suggests that more progress might be made toward wiping out mutual suspicions if negotiations were more through diplomatic channels than through public declarations, which

Nationalists In Hulutao

Reported Encircling Another Vital City

CHUNGKING, Nov. 25 (Sunday) (AP).—Chinese Nationalist troops have wrested the Manchurian port of Hulutao from the Chinese Communists, the Nationalist press reported today.

Capture of Hulutao would afford the Nationalists their first port in Manchuria at which to land reinforcements for the campaign aimed at securing Manchurian strongpoints, many already reported being entered by Chinese Communists as the Russians withdraw.

Nationalist troops reportedly seized Chinhsien's railway station Saturday and surrounded that city, 120 miles from Mukden, in an uncontested drive 100 miles deep into Manchuria.

Although the Chinese Communists had predicted the "first big battle for Manchuria" would be fought at Chinhsien—a strategic city girt by hills—The Chungking World Daily News asserted the Nationalist Army threw its lines about the city against only "unorganized resistance."

ASK RUSSIANS TO DELAY WITHDRAWAL

Wholly unconfirmed reports circulated in Chungking, meanwhile, that Chungking and Moscow had reached an agreement under which Russia would delay her withdrawal from Manchuria, previously set for completion December 3.

These reports, whose accuracy can be determined only by events, said Chungking was unwilling to see Chinese Communists filling up the vacuum left by the Russian withdrawal, and for that reason wanted the Russians to stay on temporarily.

It also was reported without substantiation that Chungking had asked Moscow to guarantee the safe Nationalist reoccupation of Mukden and Changchun, and to disarm "armed bands" (Communists), but Moscow had yet to reply.

Witness Pulls Nazi's Ears

DACHAU, Nov. 24 (AP).—A vengeful witnes at the Dachau trials today violently pulled the ears of Vinzens Schoettl, whom the witness identified as a horror camp official who shot his comrade for getting out of formation to obtain a drink of water.

Schoettl cringed under the attack. The court reprimanded the witness and ordered the prosecution to cease having witnesses enter the prisoners' dock to single out defendants they accused of cruelties.

With Schoettl's identification only four out of the 40 defendants charged with war crimes remain without a personal accusation against them from the witness stand.

Most of the defendants looked weary and worried in sharp contrast to their arrogance at the opening of the trial eight days ago. A few were even shamefaced as witnesses continued to relate the tortures at the Dachau camp.

Now Face Huge Rubber Surplus

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP).—Tire hungry motorists take note—the world now faces a huge rubber surplus for the next two or three years.

This is the conclusion of an international "rubber study group" of American, British, French and Dutch experts. They have just concluded a meeting in London and their report was released simultaneously here and there.

New Riots In Bombay Injure 26

Death Toll Mounts; Students Demonstrate

CALCUTTA, India, Nov. 24 (AP).—Twenty-six persons were injured at Bombay today in a new outbreak of rioting which already has produced scores of casualties in India, including one American soldier killed and 26 injured in Calcutta.

The death toll for three days of demonstrations against the trial of members of the Indian National Army as war criminals, mounted to 37 when American authorities announced that the charred body of a missing soldier had been found near the wreckage of a burned ambulance in Calcutta.

The new clashes in Bombay broke out when students of Khalsa and Ruia colleges walked out of their classes and attempted to stage a demonstration without a permit. Police blocked the street and charged the demonstrators with canes. They later opened fire after the students showered them with bricks and stones.

Three police inspectors, three policemen and 20 students were injured by flying missiles. No one was reported hit by gunfire.

The name of the dead American soldier was withheld pending notification of next of kin. He was reported to have left camp Howrah for Calcutta, driving an embulance, Thursday night. The burned ambulance and his body were found near an intersection which was the scene of some of the worst rioting.

Five of the injured Americans still were in hospitals, but all were reported recovering. A complete record of damaged and destroyed American vehicles was not yet available, but at least eight were known to have been destroyed and more than 50 damaged.

Shops and markets in many parts of the city closed in sympathy with the students.

The injured American soldiers suffered principally from head wounds incurred when Indian demonstrators hurled stones at them.

Iran Delegates Going to Moscow

MOSCOW, Nov. 24 (AP).—A delegation from Iran is expected to arrive in Moscow soon to discuss the situation in Northern Iran where disorders have occurred recently, an Iranian Embassy official said today.

A Tehran dispatch quoted official Iranian sources as saying the Iranian Government had not been able to arrange discussions with the Russians regarding the disorders or the refusal of Soviet authorities to permit Iranian reinforcements to enter Soviet-garrisoned Azerbaijan Province.

Crowds Visit H.M.C.S. Uganda at H.M.C. Dockyard

—R.C.N. Photos.

With interest, pride and admiration, hundreds of Victorians yesterday boarded and inspected one of Canada's two new and powerful cruisers, H.M.C.S. Uganda. The 8,800-ton warship was open to the public between the hours of 1:30 and 4:30 p.m at H.M.C. Dockyard, Esquimalt, in conjunction with Navy Week. Many people showed great interest in the ship's nine six-inch guns, torpedo tubes and anti-aircraft armament. Uganda has a speed of more than 30 knots, carries a wartime compleent of some 800 men, and is entirely Canadian manned.

May Block Nazis' Attempt to Call British Witnesses to Nuernberg

NUERNBERG, Germany, Nov. 24 (AP).—Defence attorneys said today they would call titled members of the "Cliveden Set" and other prominent Britons as witnesses in the historic war crimes trial, but it appeared they would be blocked by legal restrictions.

The lawyers for the accused Nazi leaders disclosed their plans at a press conference. It was learned authoritatively later that restrictions on bringing in foreigners as defence witnesses before the international tribunal are so multifold that "big names" are almost excluded at the outset.

The defendants who planned to call British witnesses were former Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel and former deputy Fuehrer, Rudolf Hess.

Von Ribbentrop's attorney said the one-time German ambassador to London would call Lady Astor and others who used to meet in the 1930's at the Cliveden estate of Lord and Lady Astor, including Lords Beaverbrook, Londonderry and Derby.

Keitel's attorney announced that his client would call Giles Romnily, a nephew of Winston Churchill, who was captured by the Germans at Narvik, Norway, in 1940, and Capt. Michael Alexander, a cousin of Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander, also a prisoner of war.

Hess' attorney indicated he would call the Duke of Hamilton, on whose estate the former No. 3 Nazi landed when he parachuted upon Scotland in 1941, and the British physician who first examined Hess after he landed.

The procedure for bringing in foreign witnesses, an authoritative source said, entails a written request by the defence which stipulates clearly what evidence the witness is expected to give, approval of the request of Allied prosecutors and then approval by the tribunal.

Afterwards the tribunal must make a request to the Government of the country where the witness is a resident. The Government may either approve or deny the request. In Britain the Cabinet has full power, for example, to rule that any witness shall not appear because it would "not be in the public interest."

Assert Plan Impractical

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP).—Many delegates representing 47 countries at the United Nations Preparatory Commission said today they favored the idea of a popularly elected world assembly suggested by British Foreign Secretary Bevin, but "it won't work now."

Bevin told Commons yesterday that full use must be made of the current United Nations organization but he looked ahead to the day when an elected world assembly would strengthen the peace structure.

Bevin said he was "willing to sit with anybody of any party, of any nation, to try to devise a franchise or a constitution for a world assembly for a limited objective, the objective of peace," and "when we can get to that stage we shall have taken a great progressive step."

Russia to Increase Auto Production

MOSCOW, Nov. 24 (AP).—Russia's new five-year plan for the automotive industry will see cars and trucks manufactured in such volume that it may compete seriously with the United States and Britain for the world market.

Already large, the automotive industry will be increased from three to four times the present size.

Must Control Atomic Power

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP). — The establishment of world wide controls over atomic energy may be one of the first tasks handed the general assembly of the United Nations, British Minister of State Philip Noel-Baker declared today at the opening session of the United Nations preparatory commission.

Atomic energy "must be controlled or it will end us," Baker told delegates from the 47 nations represented. "Some urgent tasks may be laid on the first assembly, perhaps even the control of atomic energy."

The 14-member executive committee approved a Russian proposal that voting in the commission require a two-thirds majority on substantive issues, and a simple majority on matters of procedure.

The executive committee approved rules providing for public meetings of the commission except in unusual cases, and distribution of documents in five languages.

Czechoslovak Delegate Ivan Kerno complained that the American press had been playing up disputes and ignoring agreements reached in the committee.

The British and American delegates replied that it was the arguments that made the news.

They suggested that a full informed press was the best assurance of well-balanced reporting on United Nations deliberations.

U.S. and Russia Relations Better

MOSCOW, Nov. 24 (AP).—Diplomats said today the exchange of views between the United States and the Soviet Union over policies for control of Japan had taken a somewhat better turn, with definite progress achieved in the last week.

The exchange is being carried on mostly by radio and telegraph communications between the Russians and the U.S. State Department.

Would Use U.S. Ships

SHANGHAI, Nov. 24 (AP).—Lt.-Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of United States Forces in China, told a press conference today that China has asked the United States for the use of ships to transport nationalists into Manchuria, presumably at Hulutao.

The port, where Vice-Admiral Daniel E. Barbey, of the United States Seventh fleet recently took Nationalist troops but did not land them after ascertaining the presence of the Communists, already had been threatened with isolation by the land drive of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's men north from Shanhaikwan.

Wedemeyer said it was up to Washington to reply to China's request and there has been no response as yet. He added that the war shipping administration is studying the request.

General Wedemeyer who repeatedly has denied Chinese Communist charges that America is intervening in behalf of the Nationalists, emphasized:

"There have been no Americans entering Manchuria and under present orders there will be none."

$10,000 Haul in Daring Victoria Store Burglary

Daring burglars executed a perfectly planned robbery at Rose's, Ltd., jewelry store, 1317 Douglas Street, Friday night and escaped with more than 200 watches and three trays of rings valued at approximately $10,000.

The men used a ladder to gain access to a small roof behind the I.O.O.F. Hall and entered the room by removing a window leading into it. There they sunk test holes in the floor to locate joists and used a brace and bit to ring a small hole. They smashed through two sections of floor broad and four inches of concrete to open a hole which police measurements showed to be only 16 by 20 inches.

The burglars cleverly eluded every door and the safe, all of which were wired to set off alarms, and they worked only on showcases hidden from the viewpoint of front windows.

They are believed to have left by the same route. A rope was used by the men for lowering into the balcony floor of the store. Only exceptionally small men could have gained access by the hole.

Ray Rose, manager of the store, expressed the belief that the large number of watches stolen might indicate American robbers, because of the demand for watches in that country.

He said the men carefully cleaned off the shelves and trays and piled the boxes containing the jewelry neatly under the counters. The rings stolen included some set with stones, sterling and men's signet rings.

The robbery was discovered when the store was opened yesterday morning and was reported to city police at 9:05 a.m.

Detectives Dave Donaldson and Angus Munro were assigned to the case.

The care exercised in the robbery led Mr. Rose to state that the store must have been expertly "cased."

Jap Claims Food In Camps Ample

MANILA, Nov. 24 (AP).—A Japanese lieutenant-colonel, who has been getting regular nourishment in an American prisoner-of-war camp, testified today at the war crimes trial of Lt.-Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita that military and civilian prisoners of the Japanese during the Philippines occupation received the "best available" food and treatment.

The witness, Lt.-Col. Kikuo Ishikawa, formerly in charge of prison camp supplies in Yamashita's Fourteenth Army Group area, said he inspected Bilibid Prison, Santo Tomas Camp, and other incarceration centres and thought the food was "ample."

One Job to Four Applicants Here Figures Disclose

Ottawa Reports 1,983 Seeking Work Against 644 Openings in Victoria Before New Layoff

Ottawa figures received here yesterday and compiled before the announcement of the layoff of 900 men at the Victoria Machinery Depot Co., Ltd., on Thursday, showed 644 unfilled vacancies and 1,983 applicants for jobs in Victoria.

C. A. Mudge, manager of the Employment Service office here said that Victoria could not begin to absorb all the men laid off from the shipyards.

In Vancouver, A. P. Allison, president of the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council, said that something must be done to provide jobs because veterans were beginning to get in an "ugly mood."

APPARENTLY FORGETTING SITUATION IN B.C.

Commenting on a statement by Reconstruction Minister Howe that Canada will need no extensive public works program to create employment for at least a year, Mr. Allison said:

"Two officers of our organization interviewed Mr. Howe on this matter in Ottawa in June and he said at that time that he was not worried about employment prospects in Canada as a whole, but he was worried about those in British Columbia.

"He must have forgotten that British Columbia is being loaded up with men from the East.

"About 35 to 40 per cent of the dischargees here whom we contact have never lived in British Columbia before. That is why there is such a heavy backlog of men needing work they cannot get."

The Ottawa report, issued by the Department of Labor, said that the National Employment Service had book surplus of some 40,000 jobseekers over job vacancies but the

New Order Hits Japs' War Profit

Directive Ends Even Servicemen's Pensions

TOKIO, Nov. 25 (Sunday) (AP).—Gen. MacArthur in a stern "war does not pay" directive today ordered the Japanese Government to tax away the war profits of all Nipponese firms and individuals and make a capital levy ranging up to 70 per cent on corporate and private fortunes—including the Imperial household's.

A statement accompanying the directive said it would "result in a more equitable distribution of wealth than Japan has ever had."

In the most strongly worded order of the occupation to date, the supreme commander prohibited all Government credit or subsidy activities pending sweeping reorganization of Government finances, and directed the Japanese to submit a complete war profits tax program to the first session of the Diet in 1946.

PENSIONS ALLOWED ONLY FOR DISABILITIES

Reaching down to the very soldiers and sailors who fought the war as well as the generals and admirals who directed it and the Zaibatsu (big family concerns) who supplied it, MacArthur also ordered the Government to terminate by February 1 the payment of any discharge allowances or service pensions to Japanese veterans "except compensation for physical disability limiting the recipients' ability to work."

MacArthur told the Nipponese: "Certain Japanese interests have used unjustified and aggressive war to illegally enrich themselves for many years. You will demonstrate to all Japanese that war is financially unprofitable, by ensuring that the tax includes the period not only dating from the perfidious attack on Pearl Harbor but includes the period prior to that date to the maximum extent possible."

Cameron Report Public Monday

The Cameron report on education costs, which will revamp school financing in British Columbia, will be released on Monday to the public, government officials announced yesterday. It will cost each applicant $1 per copy.

Under the revised plan proposed by the Cameron report, and which Premier John Hart has pledged will be implemented at the next session of the Legislature, the Provincial Government will assume 55 per cent of education costs, compared with 32 per cent at present.

Implementation of the Cameron report, Premier Hart said recently, will establish in British Columbia the highest basic educational standard in Canada.

Tax burden upon real property for education will be reduced and made more uniform through the province.

Federal-Provincial Conference Gets Under Way Again Monday

OTTAWA, Nov. 24 (CP).—The next play in the Dominion-Provincial Conference is with the provincial Premiers. What happens when the nine Premiers meet with the Federal Government on Monday rests with the Premiers.

Monday's meeting is a continuation of the sessions of the co-ordinating committee established when the conference opened business here August 8.

The committee suspended meetings in camera in August and will start again that way.

Whether it holds a public session and whether comments by the provinces on Dominion proposals or provincial counter-proposals are made public depends on the decision of the committee on which the provinces have nine voices and the Dominion one.

Before the Provincial Governments and the public for more than three months have been the Dominion Government's proposals which involve:

1. Provinces to refrain from levying income, corporation and estate taxes.

2. Dominion to tax uniformly across Canada in these fields.

3. Dominion to pay larger subsidies to the provinces variable on the basis of population and national income.

4. Dominion to assume responsibility for employable unemployed and universal pensions to persons over 70.

5. Provinces to provide relief for unemployable unemployed and share the cost of pensions to needy persons between 65 and 69.

6. Dominion to make grants for public health and health insurance as part of a plan for national health insurance.

7. Dominion to assist provincial and municipal public works and natural resources development projects which are timed to fit with a plan to maintain continuous high employment.

8. All arrangements to be effected by agreements running for a three-year period and not by constitutional change.

Parri Quits Italian Post

ROME, Nov. 24 (AP).—Ferruccio Parri, his Coalition Cabinet shattered by a rightist revolt, stepped down from Italy's Premiership tonight after warning the nation's political leaders that a prolonged crisis would "open the road to Fascism."

In a dramatic valedictory to which he summoned the world press, Parri handed his resignation to the Committee of National Liberation which placed him in power last June; then, driving through rain to the Royal Palace, he formally bowed out before Crown Prince Umberto.

The prince, for whom the crisis may provide a long-sought chance to strengthen the embattled monarchy, announced he would begin consultations tomorrow towards formation of a new government.

With leftists struggling bitterly for control before general elections are held in the Spring, observers predicted a long stalemate before the crisis is resolved.

While Parri, 55-year-old former resistance leader, spoke to the Liberation Committee, a crowd estimated at 1,000 gathered in the street outside Viminale Palace and shouted, "We want Parri." Police reinforcements guarded the palace.

The committee included representatives of the Liberal and Christian Democrat parties, whose withdrawal from the Government Coalition precipitated the Cabinet crisis.

New Trouble In Indo-China

SAIGON, Nov. 24 (AP).—Two British Indian soldiers and 30 civilians were wounded in an outburst of violence at Bien Hoa, rail town 30 miles northeast of Saigon, a British-French communique said today, as the Annamese continued to battle French attempts to regain control of Indo-China.

A British spokesman asserted: "We are not here to reconquer this country for the French," explaining British operations against the Annamese were concerned chiefly with protecting outskirts of areas where disarmed Japanese prisoners have been concentrated.

American Warships at Hawaii Restrained Japs, Says Welles

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP). — Sumner Welles, former undersecretary of state, expressed conviction today that keeping the American fleet in Hawaii during 1940-41 acted as a brake on Japanese aggression.

"If the fleet had been withdrawn from Hawaii the Japanese war lords would [illegible] interpreted it as aquiescence in their policy of aggression," he testified to the Congressional committee investigating the attack on Pearl Harbor.

In clipped tones, the tall, former diplomat also gave unqualified endorsement to the statement presented to the committee by former Secretary of State Hull.

"I agree completely," he said.

In that statement, Hull had said that he and President Roosevelt did everything they could, short of surrendering principles, to avert or delay a conflict with Japan.

In the unfolding of the diplomatic story of the events preceding the attack, the committee also learned that Prime Minister Churchill of Britain twice took the initiative in suggesting moves by this country.

The first was at the Atlantic Charter meeting, held in August, 1941, aboard the U.S. Cruiser Augusta off the Newfoundland coast.

There, Churchill proposed that the United States and Britain each issue a warning to Japan against further aggression. President Roosevelt agreed and personally gave the warning to the Japanese Ambassador on August 17.

Mr. Roosevelt elected, however, to use somewhat milder language than his British friend had originally proposed.

Again, on November 30, 1941, Churchill suggested in a message that the President tell the Japanese "that 'any further Japanese aggression would compel you to place the gravest issues before Congress' or words to that effect."

No action in line with that suggestion was taken, so far as the record shows. Welles said he knew of no communication sent the Japanese between November 30 and December 7, 1941, except the President's message of December 6 to Emperor Hirohito urging that peace be maintained.

Chairman Barkley, (Democrat, Kentucky) raised the question of whether the fleet's presence in Hawaii had influenced Japan. He recalled that Admiral J. O. Richardson, [illegible] fleet, had testified that he protested to President Roosevelt on October 8, 1940, against keeping it there.

Richardson said he argued the ships could be better prepared for war at West Coast bases but the President replied that he believed the presence of the fleet at Pearl Harbor would have a "restraining influence" on Japan.

Senator Ferguson (Republican, Michigan) told Welles at one point that Senator Pepper (Democrat, Florida) had been quoted as saying in a speech at Boston on November 24, 1941, that the navy had "drawn a line in the Pacific" and that if the Japanese crossed it there would be shooting.

"Was that true?" he asked.

"I know of no such arrangement," Welles replied.

Pepper is now in Europe and could not be reached for comment.

Welles testified that as early as mid-September of 1941 he regarded war with Japan as "probably inevitable."

500,000 Now On Strike in United States

By The Associated Press

Threat of a nation-wide walkout of 250,000 telephone operators was dismissed last (Saturday) night with the ending of a six-day strike of 6,700 telephone workers in Illinois and Indiana.

But a stalemate marked the strike of 175,000 General Motors Corporation employees, which brought the total of the nation's workers made idle by labor disputes near the half-million mark.

In addition, union sources indicated yesterday that co-operation of tool and die workers may be sought by the United Automobile Workers in the strike against G-M. The strike, which has affected workers in 51 cities, will result in early lay-off of 100,000 parts industry employees and eventually halt all automobile production, a spokesman for automotive parts makers asserted.

In the General Motors dispute, called by the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) to enforce a demand for a 30 per cent wage rate increase, the Government, with President Truman's approval, called on its top conciliators to move toward settlements.

The corporation rejected a union offer of arbitration of the wage increase as a "demand for abdication" of its rights to "manage its business."

R. J. Thomas, union president, termed the rejection as no surprise, and said that if General Motors were willing to "accept the principle of arbitration . . . they would have made a counter-offer."

Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach in Washington said Edgar L. Warren, head of the United States conciliation service, would invite representatives of the disputants to the capital for conferences. He said he had gone over the whole G-M situation with Mr. Truman.

The corporation also withdrew its offer of a 10 per cent "cost of living" increase in its letter rejecting the U.A.W. arbitration offer.

Other labor disputes kept an additional 300,000 workers off their jobs throughout the nation. This figure included some 60,000 A.F.L. lumber and sawmill workers in the Pacific Northwest, out since September 24 in a wage disagreement; 60,000 machinists in San Francisco; 6,100 employees of the Brown & Sharpe Manufacturing Co., Providence, R.I.; and 4,300 Greyhound bus drivers in 26 states.

Wages were the issues in most disputes.

Chicago's Phone Strike Settled

CHICAGO, Nov. 24 (AP). — The six-day strike of 8,700 Illinois telephone operators ended tonight, averting a possible nationwide walkout of 250,000 telephone workers and restoring outside service with Chicago and 115 other Illinois communities and Lake and Porter Counties in Indiana.

Announcement of the settlement was made by United States Conciliator W. G. Murray following a conference with officials of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company and representatives of the Illinois Telephone Traffic Union (Indiana).

Service was restored at 6:10 p.m. Central Standard Time, Murray said.

Murray said the union and company agreed to accept a Wartime Labor Board Telephone Commission recommendation of a $4 weekly wage increase, retroactive to last May 9.

In addition, he said, the company agreed to open negotiations "as soon as the union desires" for new wage scales, and to grant an additional non-retroactive wage boost of $2 weekly, effective "not later than February 1, 1946."

frequently lead to misinterpretation in the country to which they are directed. It is further suggested that confidence is more likely to be created by deeds than by words. "To sow confidence is seldom the surest way to win confidence."

Non-co-operative action in Persia or in Central Europe may turn out to be intimately connected with non-co-operation in Washington or in the Pacific or in the Balkans.

Leaves a Million

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., Nov. 24 (AP).—The will of Alfred A. Gallenkamp, chain shoe store operator, was filed for probate in Superior Court today, named his widow, Helen, as principal heir to the estate valued at more than $1,000,000.

Boys Attempted To Wreck Trains

CULLMAN, Ala., Nov. 24 (AP).—Three boys, the oldest 13, are in jail here charged with three separate attempts to wreck passenger trains "just to see them pile up."

Sheriff J. D. Mitchell, reporting the case today, said the youngsters—the other two are nine and ten—freely confessed they tried twice to wreck the Louisville & Nashville's Southwind, Chicago-Miami Streamliner and also tried to wreck the Pan-American.

The sheriff said that on one occasion heavy six-inch timbers were piled on the tracks beyond a curve. The other times, two heavy steel plates and two-by-four-inch boards were used.

Railroad men spotted the blockades in time, the sheriff said.

On Trail of Gold Racket

ZURICH, Nov. 24 (Reuters).—Swiss and French police working in collaboration have made seven arrests following investigations into an international gold smuggling racket.

An organization with headquarters at Geneva has been buying gold coins in Switzerland at prices varying between 37 and 45 Swiss francs (between $9 and $11) and smuggling them into France where they fetch [illegible] francs (about $200).

The traffickers take advantage of the regulation which allows anyone leaving Switzerland to purchase at a bank up to ten gold coins on production of a passport and visa.

New York Police On Crimes Drive

NEW YORK, Nov. 24 (AP).—While police questioned 71 prisoners rounded up today in a drive against mounting violence and crime, the United States Secret Service announced arrest of a laborer it accused of stealing 1,000 cheques totaling $60,000—mostly allotment cheque—from family mail boxes.

McGrath quoted him as saying he had made $200 to $300 weekly since beginning operations in Chicago in 1939.

Sixty-seven violent deaths have been attributed to the crime wave in the past 75 days.

Stole Pay Cheques

PORT ALBERNI, Nov. 24 (CP).—Benny Gordon Wilson, alias K. McKeown, charged with stealing pay cheques from Bloedel, Stewart & Welch, Ltd., at Great Central, B.C., was given six months in Oakalla at Alberni. He was brought from Vancouver, where he was arrested and given six months for attempting to cash one of the cheques.

Unemployment Situation in B.C. Critical Say Officials

VANCOUVER, Nov. 24 (CP).—Selective Service officials said today British Columbia's unemployment crisis is critical and William Horrobin, regional employment officer, said he sees only one eventual solution—development of new secondary industries.

Selective Service officials predicted the unemployment situation will get worse during the Winter, probably reaching its peak around March, when, perhaps, it will begin to ease.

At present there are two and one-half times as many men looking for work in the province as there are jobs available.

Thousands are pouring into the labor market each month from service discharge centres and from other provinces. What jobs are vacant do not match either the skills or the expectations of the job seekers.

Basically the province at present is an employer of unskilled labor in its mines and woods. It can absorb the skills of its returning veterans only by developing industries to process the raw materials it produces.

"Without secondary industries, I don't see any solution at all," said Mr. Horrobin. "But at present secondary industry is being stifled by the lack of materials and to a certain extent by the lack of office and factory accommodation."

U.S. Marines Held Prisoner

SHANGHAI, Nov. 24 (AP).—United States Amphibious Corps officers are engaged in negotiations with Chinese Communists for the release of six American marine flyers held prisoners by the Communists at a remote village 80 miles West of Tientsin.

The flyers were forced down 14 days ago during a flight from Pieping to Tientsin.

Efforts to obtain the names of the prisoners were unavailing at Marine Headquarters but I am informed reliably that one pilot is Lt. R. A. Holbrook, of Three Rivers, Texas.

He was flying a warrant officer, two sergeants and two privates, all of the First Marine Air Wing, to Tientsin. He became lost and the plane ran out of gasoline. All the prisoners were reported in good condition.

Help to bring New Hope to Shattered Lives

In its homes, hospitals and hostels for men, women and children who have fallen prey to mischance or human frailty, The Salvation Army brings new hope to the despairing and restores shattered lives. Your dollars are needed to make this work possible. Give generously.

THE SALVATION ARMY DID NOT SHARE IN THE COMMUNITY CHEST this year and now asks the people of Victoria for $30,000 to carry on its work in our own City—half of this amount for general activities, half towards building of the new Citadel on Pandora Avenue.

Now REDUCED RATE ON LOANS

$20 to $1,000 without endorsers or bankable security
Monthly rate of only 1½% on unpaid balances

NOW you can borrow from Household Finance at the monthly rate of only 1½%! At this rate you pay only $1.50 for a $100 loan for one month, only $3.75 for a $250 loan!

All you do. To apply for a loan at this reduced rate—$50, $100, or as much as $1,000—you merely telephone or visit the Household office, say how much money you want and the payment plan you prefer (see table below.) You need no endorsers, guarantors or bankable security, no help from outsiders, to get a loan from Household. If you can make the monthly payments shown, don't hesitate to ask for whatever amount you need. You can usually get the cash the same day you apply.

Small monthly payments. Notice that you may choose the payment plan that best fits your own income. The sooner you repay the less your loan costs. Payments shown include principal and charges. No fines, discounts or extras of any kind.

Now see what reasonable costs Household's rate makes possible. A $25 loan, repaid in 3 monthly payments, for example, costs only 75c. And that's the total and complete cost! Charges on a $100 loan, repaid in six monthly instalments as shown, come to only $5.32. A $300 6-payment loan costs $15.95; a $500 3-payment loan $15.07; a $1,000 6-payment loan only $53.15. Why pay more?

If you need money to pay old bills, your doctor or dentist, or for some other purpose, phone or visit Household Finance. Take advantage of Household's reduced rate now.

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., Nov. 24 (AP).—The will of Alfred A. Gallenkamp, chain shoe store operator, was filed for probate in Superior Court today, named his widow, Helen, as principal heir to the estate valued at more than $1,000,000.

Jap Admiral Says Tojo Forced War to Ease China Failure

TOKIO, Nov. 24 (AP).—A retired Japanese admiral declared today that Hideki Tojo and his henchmen plunged Japan into the war with the United States to escape the wrath of the people for failures in China.

Rear Admiral Katsugi Masaki in an interview named men high in Japan's affairs — some not on General MacArthur's list of suspected war criminals — as involved in the militarists' rise to power and conquest.

"These generals," said Masaki, "became desperate at the failure in China, knowing they would be punished if they lost, and they propelled Japan into the 'Pacific war.'"

Among others he named General Teiichi Suzuki, former adviser to Tojo, who has not been placed on Allied lists, and Lt.-Gen. Akiro Muto, chief of staff to Lt.-Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita. Muto faces trial in Manila after an American military tribunal settles the fate of Yamashita.

"There were other factors" leading to the war, Masaki continued, "notably a feeling among Japanese that they were being oppressed by the western powers — but the major cause of all these conflicts was the intrigue by which Tojo and other army Fascists sought domestic totalitarian power."

Three Die in Level Crossing Accident

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Nov. 24 (CP).—Three men were killed just before 7 p.m. (P.S.T.) tonight when the car in which they were driving was struck by a Canadian National Railways train at a level crossing in the heart of Oakville, Ont.

Nate Foley and Harold Howe, two of the victims, were natives of Athens, Ont. The third was a soldier whose identity has not been established.

Tugboat Sinks

The 153-ton tug Chemainus, owned by Straits Towing & Salvage Co., Ltd., sank off Lund, north of Vancouver, yesterday. Details of the incident had not been received here late last night. The crew of eight was rescued by another tug. It is presumed the 93-foot tug hit a rock. Built at Chemainus in 1908, the vessel is 93 feet in length and has a beam of 22 feet.

Myfanwy Sanders Case Still Mystery; Police Revisit Scene

Mystery still shrouds the death of 16-year-old Myfanwy Sanders, who failed to return to her Marigold Avenue home in Saanich on October 17 and whose body was found in a field 500 yards from her home 23 days later.

Chief Josiah Bull, of the Saanich police, last night said he had nothing to divulge as to any progress being made in the case.

It was reported that Dr. J. H. Moore, autopsist, found death was due to asphyxia and it later was learned that carbon monoxide was not the cause of death.

Vital organs of the girl were analyzed by Genille Cave-Brown-Cave, provincial analyst, whose report has yet to be made public by the police.

Yesterday it was said that Mr. Cave-Brown-Cave, accompanied by Dr. R. G. McNeely, pathologist at Royal Jubilee Hospital, and members of the Saanich police force, made further investigation of the scene where the girl's body was found. Introduction of Dr. McNeely into the case would imply a new move in the search for the cause of death.

Still puzzling the authorities is a [illegible] made by a woman who knew the dead girl and who is said to have told them she chatted with the Sanders girl two days after she failed to return home.

More puzzling still is the report that the deceased when seen by this woman was wearing clothes different from those she wore the day she left home. When her body was found, it was clad in the same clothing she wore when she left home.

Another mysterious feature is that the grass on which the body lay was described as "quite fresh and green."

It was said that the body could not have been in the field more than two or three days when discovered by a woman who was taking a short cut across the field to her home.

Nazi Leaders Agree Party Plan No Good

NUERNBERG, Nov. 24 (AP).—The prosecution's outline of the Nazi Party Organization before the International War Crimes Tribunal yesterday produced sarcastic luncheon table comment by the Nazi leaders on trial.

"It looks like a wonderful organization on the chart," said Hjalmar Schacht, former Reichsbank president. "The only trouble is it never functioned."

"Isn't it the truth?" chimed in Albert Speer, former Reichsminister of Production.

"I don't envy the prosecution the task of figuring out the party organization, since we Germans never could figure it out," said Hans Fritzsche, German radio propagandist.

"I see they've just promoted Von Schirach (Baron von Schirach, Hitler Youth leader) to Cabinet minister," said fat Hermann Goering sarcastically. "And then they wanted to have me as Hitler's successor after Hess. Imagine the crust."

When asked what he remembered about the trial, Rudolf Hess, one-time deputy Fuehrer who claims he is suffering from amnesia, said there was just a lot of talk and professed not even to know what had gone on the day before.

"The one pleasant aspect of my memory loss," he said, "is that I don't have to answer a lot of silly questions about past events that concern only me as a German and are nobody else's business."

Julius Streicher, anti-Semitic propagandist, said he has decided three of the judges are Jews.

Killed at Moose Jaw

MOOSE JAW, Nov. 23 (CP).—Robert G. Dornan, 33, Moose Jaw, was almost instantly killed near Keeler last night when the car he was driving collided with a truck. Ellen Jackson, 21, of Elbow, a passenger in the car, is in hospital here with severe injuries. The truck was driven by R. D. Joel, of Elbow.

10,000 Tons Meat Shipped Overseas

HALIFAX, Nov. 24 (CP).—Ten thousand tons of bacon and other Canadian meat products will have been shipped from this port for the British market during the month of November, shipping officials revealed today. The freighters Jamaica Producer and Pacific Enterprise have already sailed with 2,174 tons of meat and the Bayano and Ariquany will sail before the end of the month with 5,800 tons.

Churchill Urged Japs Be Warned

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP).—Congressional investigators were told today that Winston Churchill urged President Roosevelt a week before Pearl Harbor to send a "secret or public" warning to Japan against further aggression.

A message from the British Wartime Prime Minister to Mr. Roosevelt was read to the Senate-House of Representatives Committee investigating the Japanese surprise attack on Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941.

Dated November 30, 1941, and labelled "personal and secret for the President from former naval person," it said:

"It seems to me that one important method remains unused in averting war between Japan and our two countries, namely a plain declaration, secret or public as may be thought best, that any further act of aggression by Japan will lead immediately to the gravest consequences. I realize your constitutional difficulties but it would be tragic if Japan drifted into war by encroachment without having before her fairly and squarely the dire character of a further aggressive step. I beg you to consider whether at the moment which you judge right which may be very near you should not say that any further Japanese aggression would compel you to place the gravest issues before Congress or words to that effect.

"We would, of course, make a similar declaration or share in a joint declaration, and in any case arrangements are being made to synchronize our action with yours. Forgive me, my dear friend, for presuming to press such a course upon you, but I am convinced that it might make all the difference and prevent a melancholy extension of the war.

"(Signed) —WINANT"

London Boroughs Are Blacked Out

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP). — Streets were blacked out in 23 London boroughs tonight as an unofficial strike of 2,000 gas workers in Essex cut gas supplies in half.

Many Londoners were forced on a bread and cheese diet, and many housewives placing meat in ovens found it still uncooked after several hours.

In order to conserve fuel for cooking, all industrial and non-domestic users were urged to "turn it off."

Demands Only B.C. Firms on Public Works

VANCOUVER, Nov. 24 (CP).—Exclusion of Eastern firms and workers from participating in Provincial Government public works projects was demanded by the British Columbia Trades and Labor (A.F.L.) Conference as its two-day meeting wound up here yesterday.

The Building and Construction Union introduced the adopted resolution because they charged three Eastern firms are already working on postwar jobs in this Province and are undercutting union standards with imported labor.

Opposition came from several delegates who protested against "setting up barriers" and bucking "free enterprise."

Supporters of the motion said British Columbia contractors should be given this work.

"We are not opposed to outside firms coming in," William James, Construction Union Secretary, replied to his critics. "We want them to establish offices here so we can deal with them."

"We are living in a land of free enterprise," Robert Cormack, of the Street Railwaymen, declared, "and I am opposed to closing out Eastern contractors. Just tell them they must pay the existing wages in British Columbia."

A resolution from the Victoria Local of the Typographical Union asking for the dissolution of the National and Regional War Labor Boards was altered by the conference because Congress policy favors their continuation.

It was agreed, however, that on a joint application, where the ability to pay proposed wage increases is proven, the two boards should grant the concessions.

Delegates recommended that a central body for A.F.L. unions be set up in British Columbia and the conference be made an annual affair.

Concerned About Prices in China

SHANGHAI, Nov. 24 (AP).—Angered at the rapidly ascending prices in Shanghai, Lt.-Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of American forces in China, said today he was "determined to smash this exploitation of Americans."

The general emphasized that his statement was "not a veiled threat—I am not bluffing and not intimidating."

He told correspondents his staff was studying "a correct approach" and if that fails he will place out of bounds all price gougers.

Killinger Going On Trial Monday

WUPPERTAL, Germany, Nov. 24 (AP).—Col. Erich Killinger, chief of the notorious "sweat box" camp where captured American and British airmen were tortured in hot asbestos-lined cells in an effort to make them talk, will go on trial in this Ruhr town Monday with four members of his staff.

Among witnesses will be approximately 10 R.A.F. pilots who will testify before the British military court of their ordeals in the cells, where the metal of their cots got too hot to touch.

Churchill Plans Full-Scale Attack

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP).—Winston Churchill is scheduled to lead a full force attack by the Conservatives next week on the Labor Government's nationalization program.

He will give a full dress review of the Opposition's stand in an address to the central council of the Conservative party on Wednesday night.

Victoria Jobs

shortage of skilled workers was holding up full-scale employment in other industries.

The department reported a Dominion-wide total of 160,029 jobseekers as compared with 120,922 jobs. In the two weeks ending November 9 the number of unplaced applicants registered with National Employment Service offices increased by 11,000 while the number of vacancies decreased by 13,000.

Almost 37,000 women were available to fill some 30,880 openings for female labor and 119,500 men were registered to fill 55,400 jobs in industries outside of logging. Fewer than 2,900 bushmen were registered to fill orders for almost 34,700 woodsworker.

"On every hand it is reported by employers that their staffs could be materially increased if the Employment Service could produce some skilled men," the department said.

MEN STILL NEEDED IN THE WOODS

"There has been a good response to the Department of Labor's Dominion-wide campaign for bushworkers, but at November 9 the manpower requirements of woods operators across Canada were still far from satisfied."

British Columbia woods operations would be able to absorb more men as soon as skilled workmen are released from the armed forces, and operators would be more willing to absorb their staffs after the holiday season, the report said.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 24 (CP).—James Morton, of J. L. Morton & Company, and Supercraft Limited, of Winnipeg, were fined $2,500 in Provincial Police Court for failure to make true returns on their income for the years 1942 and 1943.

If You Get Up Nights You Can't Feel Right

If you have to get up 3 or more times a night your rest is broken and it's no wonder if you feel old and run down before your time. Kidney and Bladder troubles often may be the cause of many pains and symptoms simply because the Kidneys may be tired and not working fast enough in filtering and removing irritating excess acids, poisons and wastes from your blood. So if you get up nights or suffer from burning, scanty or frequent passages, leg pains, backache, or nervousness, due to Kidney and Bladder troubles, you'll make no mistake in trying Cystex. Because it has given such joyous, happy results in so high a percentage of cases, Cystex is sold under an agreement of money back on return of empty package unless completely satisfactory to you. Cystex costs little at druggists, and the money back offer protects you.

Charity

The word charity, is used with different meanings in the Scriptures. It is seldom more effectively used than where it stands for goodwill towards fellowmen. The Apostle Paul in his Epistle to the Romans, at Rom. xiii.9, put high among the commandments this: "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." No one has to strain over its purport. The words convey their full, clear meaning. As a philosophy of life, mankind has not found a better one since those days, long ago, when The Great Teacher walked among human kind.

Human relations, the most backward of our studies and the most neglected, only break down without goodwill. Consideration for others, fair intention towards them, and the very neglect of self so implied, are solvents in the inevitable clash of human wills. Tolerance, even in its most superficial degree, is fitting among men, who, under Heaven, walk the same road and towards the same end. But charitableness is stronger than that. Charity is the active, and not merely the passive, force. It involves, and deeply, the human heart.

Some individuals deem that they have done their whole duty in life when they agree to "live and let live." That was not what Saint Paul had in mind, if his words are given their whole meaning. "Thou shalt love thy neighbour," he wrote; and the degree is added, "as thyself." Self-love is among the strongest of all human forces, that requiring lifelong and patient controlling. It is in the never-ceasing struggle against self that charity is born, and grows stronger as it is exercised.

True charity can only be expressed by deeds. It is goodwill in action. It is a sign that the heart has grown, and is becoming mature. And this was enjoined upon man, long centuries ago.

Harry T. Barnes

Victoria lost one of its pioneer yachtsmen with the passing on Friday of Mr. Harry T. Barnes, long insurance manager for R. P. Rithet & Company, and known where white-winged craft are sailed throughout the Pacific Northwest. Coming to Victoria from England before the turn of the present century, Mr. Barnes had been resident here for 49 years, and since 1904 identified with the firm in which he rose to high executive positions. An ardent sportsman, Mr. Barnes loved sailing, and was noted for the succession of handsome craft which he built and raced in the principal regattas of the Northwest. A prime mover in the development of both rowing and yachting on this coast, he retained those interests to the close of a long and active career. The burgee on many a Pacific Northwest sloop and schooner will stand at half-mast today in memory of one who was esteemed by a legion of friends. To his widow and family will go the sincere sympathies of this community, in the interests of which the late Mr. Barnes labored for close upon half a century.

Dominion Must Lead

Shipyard workers displaced by the sudden cancellation of war contracts here are unlikely to find much consolation in the seeming complacency of the Minister of Reconstruction, who "hopes" there will be sufficient employment by next Spring to preclude the need for public works. They are entitled to more than hopes, which of themselves will bring nothing to fruition.

What about the grandiose reconversion plans so widely mooted a year or so ago? Mr. Howe now says public works should not be necessary for "another year or two." He apparently assumes that of their own accord conditions will right themselves, that a Micawber-like optimism can see this country through a difficult transition period. That is scarcely good enough from the minister charged with providing the opportunities for employment.

Many intended postwar plans have not yet passed the blue-print stage. Certain Provincial and municipal projects cannot be undertaken until knowledge of the share the Federal Government will take in them is clearly set out. Industry itself awaits relief from taxation and advice as to future national fiscal policies before it can expand and aid in re-employment. The initiative must come from Ottawa. It should lead now and demonstrate by national action the fields in which reconversion can be most practicably applied. No one may suspend living for two years.

In Calmer Paths

A by-product of modern warfare, and perhaps the principal leavening aspect of it, is the peaceful use to which many of its implements may be turned. Devices born of desperation, or created under a stimulus which seems to produce the peak of human ingenuity, can be utilized in much happier ways than those for which they were originally intended.

The discovery of radar, for example, with its groping beams which unerringly detect obstacles ahead, should be a boon to transportation. It will reduce greatly the hazards of travel, especially on the sea and in the air, and add immensely to the safeguards sought for the protection of the travelling public. In the field of medicine the wounds of war have made possible great advances in the healing arts of peace. Surgical techniques and valuable knowledge in the use of drugs developed on the field of battle should be a legacy of lasting benefit to mankind.

Engineering and technical skills have acquired a new and keener edge. Such expedients as floating harbors and Bailey bridges will have their counterparts in civilian construction. Methods like those used in air-sea rescue work can increase the value of coast guard services everywhere. Experiments in plastics and textiles, the creation of new fabrics, will be reflected in many new amenities for home and factory. Aviation, of course, will be revolutionized, and the improvements in both aircraft and engines incorporated in new designs for the promotion of commercial and private flying.

Discounting atomic energy, which is still shrouded in mystery and uncertainty, these and other appliances born of war will grow to maturity in a world at peace. They should add in no small measure to the sum total of human convenience and happiness in the years to come.

The Storm

There is majesty in a storm. The millions of tons of water flung by the sea with violence upon the shore shake the rocks and travel in pressure waves far into the hinterland. Steaming white horses charge in an endless procession, waving their curling plumes. The spray leaps up, at the margin of land and water, to continue the assault where the waves recoil to advance again. The gulls drift inland, sailing; almost motionless in the leaden sky. Again and again the earth trembles from hammer blows. The pebbles rasp like a giant file in a grating roar.

There is use in a storm. The wind picks the branches of the trees clean, shaking out grubs and insects. The rain washes the countryside; cleaning out gutters and curbs, filling drains with the refuse of a season. Roof and wall are washed and laundered. Sidewalk and road are swept and tidied. Underneath the soil, the water table rises, preparing for Spring to come, when seeds will germinate and life begin anew. With whisk and broom, Nature is busy at her own domestic chores.

There is beauty in a storm. What artist can catch the flash of the distant sunshine, far-buried in encircling layers of goose-grey clouds? What piper can echo the rhythm of the old yew tree as it sways and beats time to the pulse of the gale? What architect can draw the graceful arch in the wing of a gull, taut against the rushing wind? What panorama will show the wind, the rain, the spray, the light and the bridled forces all together? None. And yet this is the least of Nature's arts, the common levelling out of diverse temperatures in the atmosphere.

Seen in Passing

If Members of the Canadian House of Commons accept Mr. Mackenzie King's offer to "dilly-dally, come and take more" they will be putting themselves first in this land—before the returning battle veteran, before the displaced war worker, before young married couples with new lives to found in a new world, before old folks subsisting on the little that life has left them after the passage of three generations. That is what a salary grab would mean in plain, straightforward terms. It is so that the electors of this nation will see it. If Parliament votes itself more, it will be on the high road to voting its individual Members out. And how about "famine in Europe," Mr. King?

One of the real successes of this age is the number of people ready to train themselves, to take special courses, to prepare themselves for what they wish to work at. There is an objectivity behind it which speaks well for the young men and the young women of today, they who will be running things after a few tomorrows. One suspects that they will follow fewer mirages, and test the foreground more carefully than many of the generations that have gone before. They will have a world of mistakes to profit by avoiding.

When All the World Is Young

When all the world is young, lad,
And all the trees are green;
And every goose a swan, lad,
And every lass a queen;
Then hey for boot and horse, lad,
And round the world away;
Young blood must have its course, lad,
And every dog his day.

When all the world is old, lad,
And all the trees are brown;
And all the sport is stale, lad,
And all the wheels run down;
Creep home, and take your place there,
The spent and maimed among;
God grant you find one face there,
You loved when all was young.

The Third Column

By TOM TAYLOR

R.C.N. SAGA

In this month's Canadian Geographic Journal there is a 30-page article that should warm the cockles of any true Canadian heart. Not in smug satisfaction, but with a quiet pride in his countrymen.

It is the saga of the Royal Canadian Navy during the war. Not until you read it are you able to appreciate just what the sailors of this country did. Our navy was small compared to others, but in relation to its size its achievement was immense.

We cannot all belong to the big battalions. Potentially, this is a great country. Most of us now living may not see the full bloom of its fruits, but those of later generations undoubtedly will. Meantime, because as nations go we are in the middle class, that is no reason why we should depreciate our inheritance.

It has often seemed to this column that on the whole we sell our own country short. There is too ready an assumption that what is done somewhere else must necessarily be better than anything we can do.

NATIONAL TIMIDITY

There is a national timidity, stemming mainly from the Ottawa approach to external problems, difficult to reconcile with the individual Canadian itch to do things. Nationally, we seem always waiting to see which way the cat jumps before we choose our path. Why, for instance, should we always follow London, Washington, or some other capital? What is to prevent us taking the lead sometime?

The creation of a distinctive pattern of life is admittedly not easy. Too many influences tug at both our heart and purse strings; the impact of British tradition and American economic proximity is very strong. Yet it should not be impossible to absorb and adhere to one and adjust our relations to the other without losing our individuality.

Perhaps the creation of a distinct official nationality, now pending, will help. It may provide the label necessary for complete national self-confidence. It certainly should enable individual citizens to know exactly what they are and take pride in their identity.

There is much in American life that Canada can well do without, but it is an undeniable fact that national consciousness has been the dynamo of United States expansion. This country is at the stage when some such motivating influence is needed to make it realize its true worth and importance.

NOT TO BE FEARED

National pride is not something to be feared. It was the late Lord Tweedsmuir who pointed out that a Canadian's first duty was to Canada, and no better advisor could be found. Loyalties always work from the bottom up. Just as any state can be no better than the people in it, no commonwealth or world association of nations can be of greater value than the worth of its members.

To native-born Canadians it might seem unnecessary that they should be officially classified. They have taken their nationality for granted. The point is that nobody else has, and clarification of the confusion that has surrounded their status should renew justifiable pride in themselves.

Those of us who were born elsewhere should welcome the Canadian certification that is coming. Every man worth his salt is proud of his birth and he would be a queer individual who did not feel affection for his native soil, but if we elect to make Canada our home our obligations are here. First claim on our loyalties rests in the land where we earn our living and prefer to stay. And in so fine a country as this that loyalty is easy to give.

FACTOR OF INFLUENCE

Perhaps when we are collectively grouped under the head of Canadians, the stirrings of national self-respect will erupt into a factor of some influence in the distinctive Canadian pattern that should frame our lives. We might even discover it is unnecessary to import movie stars to show us how to invest our money, or invite foreign artists to beautify our capitals. We might learn, to our amazement perhaps but no doubt to our pleasure, that our own lecturers can edify us as well as those from other countries.

We might discover, in short, that pride does not necessarily go before a fall, and that there is no need for Canadians to think too small beer of themselves.

If there be any who may be reluctants to admit these things and be glad for their own and their country's sakes, they are recommended to read the saga of the Royal Canadian Navy mentioned at the beginning of this column. It should remove any doubts as to the worth of the people among whom they live and have their being.

PREPAREDNESS?

Prime Minister Attlee Praises Canadians

Extract from the address given by the British Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. C. R. Attlee, C.H., M.P., to the Parliament of Canada on November 19, 1945.

The particular problem of certain armaments must be considered in the light of the general question of securing world peace. It is just here I believe, with all due humility, that the British Commonwealth and Empire offers the world an example which should be noted and followed. In our British Commonwealth, the units which compose it are equal. They are sovereign and independent states owing allegiance to the same King, freely co-operating for their mutual benefit, each one of them living its own life, having its own distinctive characteristics, and, while avoiding slavish uniformity, being responsible to a larger unity.

The bonds which unite this great company of nations are not material, they are spiritual. The strands which compose them are the acceptance of the rule of law, a belief in and the practice of the principles of democracy and liberty and the acknowledgment of a common standard of moral values. It is in my view precisely these spiritual ties which must bind together all the nations of the world if we are to make the United Nations Organization a living entity if we are to establish peace on sure foundations. The work done at the San Francisco was valuable, but the designing and perfecting of a machine is of little value unless there is the power to make it move. It is only an intense belief in the great principles of the interdependence of nations and the brotherhood of man that will provide the motive power to this great machine which has been constructed.

I am certain that it was this unity in the British Commonwealth based on the common conception of the right relationship between human beings and between nations that was responsible for the remarkable spontaneity with which at the threat of civilization the members of the British Commonwealth of Nations sprang to arms.

Speaking to you here today after the close of this long struggle, I should like to pay my tribute to what Canada and the Canadian people achieved. I recall so well in the dark days of 1940 when our forces had to withdraw to Dunkirk and we were left with very scanty equipment to defend ourselves against invasion that then seemed imminent, how heartened we were by the presence in ever-growing numbers of the Canadian forces. I know, too, what a strain it was for those gallant men to remain apparently inactive for many weary months although in fact their presence was vital to the whole strategy of the war.

In 1942, there took place the Canadian action at Dieppe which played a vital part in the preparations for the later invasions. It enabled us to perfect our amphibious technique; it taught us how to conduct air battles in support of a landing, and it made us realize the need for bringing with us our own harbors. Thus the men of Dieppe showed the way to North Africa, to Sicily, to Italy and to Normandy.

When the time came for the Canadian armed forces to cross the seas in every theatre of war they more than sustained the high reputation which they had won in the first World War on the fields of France and Flanders. I recall how they were the spearhead of the attack on Sicily and how they fought their way north in 1944 and early 1945 along the Adriatic and across the Appenines.

It was my privilege then to visit them in the front line. No less splendid were their feats in the invasion of Europe. Some of the hardest tasks were given to them; the clearing of the Channel Ports, of the Dutch Coast, and the opening of the Port of Antwerp. And since the defeat of Germany Canadian troops have been playing their part in the vital task of disarming Germans and occupying their country. This task and similar tasks in Japan will make great demands on the resources of the Commonwealth and of the Allies, but it is one of the tasks which must be done fully and well if we are not to throw away the rewards of victory.

The whole world knows the achievements of the Royal Canadian Air Forces; their units played a distinguished part in every phase of our warfare, in every command of the United Kingdom and in every overseas theatre; they were second to none in their gallantry and in their skill. Perhaps their biggest single achievement was the provision of an entire group, the famous No. 6 Group of Bomber Command. Behind the whole air effort of the British Commonwealth lay that great Empire Air Training Scheme under which roughly one-third of the British, Dominion and Allied air crews were trained in this country.

Perhaps it is not so generally known that the Dominion of Canada played a major part in the development of Radar and provided the R.A.F. with its main source of highly skilled mechanics and technicians. Finally, let me say that one of the most notable achievements of the war was the development from beginning of a great Canadian Navy. In all the strain of the long continued Battle of the Atlantic, Canadians took their full share with their British and American comrades.

Besides all this, just as in the Old Country, the workers in the factories and the shipyards, the scientists, the technicians and research workers are entitled to a full share of credits for the successful outcome of the war. I should like here to refer particularly to the vast financial contribution of Canada and to the whole system of mutual aid. Canada has had not only firm leadership of her fighting forces, by sea, on land and in the air, but also at home by a far-seeing and wise Parliament and Government, who understood just what was needed for the common effort. Everyone who realises fully what Canada did throughout the war must acknowledge that hers was a major contribution to the common cause.

FILMS AND RECORDS?

Sir,—The men of the Victoria Nursing Home make an appeal to the citizens of Victoria for any 16-m.m. films for which they may have no longer any use or would care to loan to us for our entertainment after supper.

They would also be pleased to receive any records that any citizen would care to donate, as prior to the opening of the institution vandals broke in and smashed every record in the Victoria.

I might add that while our library is gradually growing, as yet no one has contributed a good dictionary.

AU REVOIR

Sir,—As we are leaving for home, I wish to pass a word of thanks and appreciation to the people of Victoria for the wonderful reception which we received during our short stay at Gordon Head and Victoria Military Hospital.

I wish, myself, I could stay or come back to Victoria, and if so I certainly will, but just now I must return to my wife and two daughters, Sylvia and Barbara.

Best wishes and good luck.

Another Policyholder Reports . . .

"WHEN DISCUSSING life insurance with two of my friends who are fathers of young children, I found that they were particularly interested in learning that I own a policy in The Mutual Life of Canada called 'FAMILY INCOME,' which will provide an income of $100 a month for my wife at my death. This income will continue until I would have been 65 had I lived, and then, she will receive $10,000.

"OF COURSE, I have made sure, through another policy in The Mutual Life, that she will also have a certain amount in cash with which to pay bills and to provide a reserve fund for emergencies.

"I DISCOVERED during our conversation that these fathers were not aware that it was possible to obtain a policy with the benefits provided by the Family Income contract, and both of them have now interviewed my Mutual Life representative, whom I recommended to them, and discovered how the policy will fit into their insurance programs."

Have a Mutual Life representative explain the special features of this Company . . . and let him arrange a Family Income policy for you, or whatever policy may be suitable for your particular circumstances.

Korea, Land of Wars, Intrigues Roundly Hated by Japanese

By HAL BOYLE

SEOUL, Korea, Nov. 24 (AP) — Some Korean close-ups:

They call this "The Land of the Morning Calm," but for 4,300 years Korea has been turbulent with wars, rebellions and intrigues, which may account for the nickname given its people, "The Iron of the Orient."

The Koreans are taller and lighter-skinned than the Japanese . . . the Japanese workers hate them, possibly because they can do more work on less food and are the only farmers in the world who can compete with the Chinese. Seventy-five per cent of the Korean farms are tenant-operated, and the average Korean got only two bushels of rice a year under the Japanese rule.

Unlike the Japanese, the Koreans are meat-eaters, but butchers rate at the bottom of the social scales . . . scholars rank highest.

The people claim they are of Divine origin. It seems that an ancient god, lonely for human happiness, came to earth and blew his breath on a young virgin seated beside a stream. Thus was conceived Tangun, who taught the wild races civilization from this breezy beginning.

The Korean religion now is a mixture springing from nature worship, Buddhism and Confucianism. There are about 500,000 Christians among the 23,000,000 population. Of these, 28,000 are Presbyterians and 115,000 Catholics.

Koreans are pushovers for American-style hats, and a visitor notices more European suits in Seoul than in Tokio . . . both women and men are giving up the traditional white Korean clothing, a custom which began centuries ago when it was required that the people wear the white of mourning for three years after a ruler died. Three rulers died in such rapid succession that wearing white became the national habit.

The Japanese hated the white garb and used to spatter ink on Koreans to force them to dye their clothes.

The Koreans regard the Japanese as cultural upstarts, for it was from Korea that the Land of the Rising Sun got most of its culture, something that the Japanese choose to forget.

Korea had movable printing type 50 years before it was invented in Europe.

In 1592 under Adm. Yu Sun-Sin they used ironclad warships to destroy a Japanese fleet, preceding the American Monitor and Merrimac by almost 300 years.

Japanese guide books say that Korean's younger generation enjoys all the privileges of modern education, but actually only 18 per cent had access to schools compared with 99.5 per cent in Japan. The true Japanese slogan, as expressed by one administrator, was "Koreans should be taught to follow, not to know."

Foreign missionaries provided most of the real education, and the Japanese hated them for it.

This is a great country in which to play "Beaver," that game in which you count beards. You may see many elderly men with long white whiskers. Possibly for fire protection, each smokes a pipe at least 1 yard long. Ginseng tablets are chewed here for health and long life.

In the old days the ordinary citizen had a 20-room house, while the "big shots" had up to 90 rooms . . . he needed that many or more, because if he had any real cash he was obliged to support all his poor relatives and their families, and even the families of their families.

Korea is a peninsula so mountainous that only about 25 per cent of the land is tillable.

Korea is run by mothers-in-law. Men are the ostensible bosses and women do all the housework, but once "Sonny Boy" brings home a wife, the bride gets the housecleaning job and Mamma becomes the elder statesman who takes over the reins for the whole family.

Layoffs in Shipyards Here Not Yet Affecting Business

Recent shipyard layoffs in Victoria have had no visible effect on business conditions so far, a survey disclosed yesterday, but it was thought some changes would be felt early in the New Year.

Merchants and others thought the released workers would "dig into" savings and war bonds, at the same time attempting to find suitable employment in this area.

Travel officials of Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways reported there had not been a heavy, or even noticeable, demand for transportation to Prairie and other eastern centres. "We really expected a heavy demand," one agent said. Large numbers of workers came to Victoria at the start of the war to work at various shipyards.

Hugh Frances, chairman of the Retail Merchants' section of the Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday his organization had not noticed any decrease of business throughout the city. He felt certain that effects would be noticed after the Christmas and New Year holidays.

The restaurant and theatre trades have not experienced a serious business slump to date, O. A. Taylor, president of the local Restaurant Association, said the restaurants were still handling heavy business, and added: "Every form of business will be effected by next Spring."

C. Denham, manager of the Dominion Theatre, yesterday said usual crowds were attending that theatre. He did not anticipate any serious decline in the movie business here.

Walked 100 Miles At 64; Bed Early

ITHACA, N.Y., Nov. 24 (AP).—Frank Tozer, 64, walked 100 miles in the 24-hour period ended at 5:30 p.m. today.

The Cornell University employee said he felt "fine" but "would go to bed early." He made his hike over a two-mile stretch.

Tozer has been making endurance walks for about 15 years.

CHLORINATION

Sir,—Citizens of Victoria will be interested in the report of three experts from the United States on the quality and safety of Vancouver's water, wherein they seriously take to task the findings of Dr. C. E. Dolman, provincial bacteriologist, which resulted in chlorination by order in council of the pure waters of both Vancouver and Victoria. Dr. G. F. Amyot, provincial health officer, also associated himself with these findings of Dr. Dolman. Both these authorities are not only challenged as to their scientific findings, but also they are plainly told that "chlorination of these pure waters is painting the lily and gilding pure gold."

These findings of the three experts also support the allegation so often made by anti-chlorinators that chlorination was not justified even as a war measure. Every single test on the strength of which Vancouver's pure water was chlorinated is challenged by these experts, who hail from a country which has found chlorination necessary.

Of particular interest to this community is the question of what action will our City Council take to protect our Victoria pure water from pollution by chlorine and ammonia.

There is also the deeper implications involved in the question of national health. Have the doctors been misled? Were they not stampeded into passing a resolution in favor of chlorinating all water, and pasteurizing all milk in British Columbia, as a result of the determined action of Dr. Dolman and Dr. A. H. Spohn, chairman of the public health committee of the British Columbia Medical Association? It is now well known that the doctors were not unanimous about either chlorination or pasteurization.

For the present, what does the City Council intend to do about it? Why not invite Dr. E. A. Cleveland, chairman of the Greater Vancouver Water Board, formerly comptroller of water rights for the Province, to come to Victoria to report on the safety, or otherwise, of Victoria water. Dr. Cleveland prepared a voluminous report on joint control and water supply of all the cities and municipalities on Burrard Inlet, in 1922. He planned this magnificent water system; he knows every part of it. He has his own laboratory, and makes his own tests. This indeed would be a safer and less expensive procedure than leaving our water and its treatment in present hands.

HARRY LANGLEY.

Chairman, Anti-Chlorination League, "Eversley," Foul Bay Road, Victoria, B.C., November 24, 1945.

Trains in Crash Two of Crew Die

HANLIN, Ga., Nov. 24 (AP).—A seven-car troop train bringing home several hundred joyous Pacific veterans through the red hills of Georgia crashed head on with a freight train today.

The engines telescoped. A fireman and an engineer were killed, and two other trainmen were injured seriously. None of the troops was hurt beyond being jarred and shaken up.

The train loaded with the soldiers was headed for Atlanta and Fort McPherson, a discharge center, over the seaboard airline route. The freight was headed West.

The dead: Engineer E. T. Pope, of Birmingham, Ala., and Fireman R. M. Keith, of Atlanta.

"I have a friend who lost her husband just before I did. He made her executrix of his estate—which was in a tangle. She found more speculative shares than good investments and had to face the problems of estate taxation. Relatives bothered her. And finally she had a breakdown.

"How fortunate I am! As soon as my husband had an estate, he went to The Canada Trust Company and arranged to have them act as executor.

"Consequently, I have no worries. My income is sufficient. When I need advice I go to The Canada Trust Company. They are kindness itself."

MOTHER LIKES brushing her teeth with CUE DENTAL LIQUID

MOTHER SAYS—"CUE is the favourite with our whole family because it's a dentifrice and mouthwash in one."

JANIE SAYS—"My teeth look so-o-o bright when I brush them with CUE . . . and it makes my mouth feel fresh and clean. And CUE looks nice too—I like its pretty ruby-red colour!"

JOHNNIE SAYS — "Mom doesn't have to coax me to brush my teeth with CUE, 'cause CUE tastes swell. And it sure is fun 'cause CUE gives lots of foam."

CUE is safe—no acid, grit or abrasives to harm delicate enamel or tender gums.

CUE saves you money!—you need only 1-2-3 drops at a time.

CUE is the vastly better way to clean mouth, teeth and breath all at the same time.

Some of the younger group also took part in the paper chase held in the afternoon, won by Mrs. Thelma Kersey. Miss Marion Millar was tea hostess at the clubhouse after the paper chase.

Will Reside in California

St. John's Church was the scene of a lovely wedding last evening when Lona-Marie Attfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Attfield, 2724 Dufferin Avenue, exchanged nuptial vows with William W. McMurray, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. McMurray, 15352 Van Owen Street, Van Nuys, Los Angeles, California. Rev. George Biddle performed the ceremony and Mr. T. Jenkins played the wedding music.

The bride, entering the church on the arm of her father, made a charming picture in her gown of eggshell slipper satin fashioned with train and Queen Elizabeth collar. Her full-length Chantilly lace veil fell from a Mary Queen of Scots headdress, and she carried an ivory prayer book with an orchid, and violets caught in white satin streamers. A hand-carved ivory cross on a gold chain and a diamond wrist watch, a gift from the groom, completed her ensemble.

The bride's sister, Mrs. T. W. Elsdon, was matron of honor, and wore a dress of blue jersey silk, Grecian style. Miss Francine Sinister, bridesmaid, wore a pale yellow embossed organza dress, and the little flower girl, Karen Doreen Larsen, was dressed in pale pink taffeta. All three attendants wore winged organdy caps with flower trim and carried Colonial bouquets. Mr. T. W. Elsdon was best man, and Mr. H. Carstens and Mr. W. Craven, the bride's cousin, ushered.

A reception was held at the home of Sub-Inspector H. Larsen, R.C.M.P., and Mrs. Larsen, 1566 Hampshire Road, where the bride and groom received the guests standing before a huge heart of flowers. Mrs. H. T. Attfield assisted in receiving, and Mr. H. Carstens proposed the toast.

For a honeymoon on the Mainland, the bride donned a blue woolen dress and squirrel coat with small blue feathered hat. The young couple will reside in California.

The bride is a survivor of the Athenia. The groom was overseas for five years with the R.C.E. and spent three years in Germany after being taken prisoner at Dieppe.

Alice Comber Lovely Bride

St. Barnabas' Church was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening when Alice Edith, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Comber, 1524 Pembroke Street, was united in marriage to Roy Theo Kleaman, Warrant Officer, R.C.N.V.R., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Kleaman, Vancouver. Reverend Eric Munn officiated and Mrs. B. Yerburgh presided at the organ. The bride made a charming picture with her four sisters in shades of pink as her attendants. Her bridal attire was composed of a white satin gown featuring a deep yoke of satin outlined with loops of the same material, high round neck and lily point sleeves. Her full net veil attached to a coronet of white flowers, was worn covering her face during the ceremony. A shower bouquet of pink carnations and rosebuds completed her ensemble. Miss Mary Comber, maid of honor, wore rose chiffon; the bridesmaids, Miss Muriel and Miss Joan Comber, had twin frocks of pink crepe, and Miss Bonnie Comber, as flower girl, wore pale pink chiffon. They had Quaker-style hats with sequin trim to match their dresses, and carried arm bouquets of small white chrysanthemums.

The best man was P.O. Writer Alex Groundwater, R.C.N.V.R., and ushering were S.B.P.O. James Torrie, R.C.N.V.R., and Mr. Denis Simmons.

At a reception held at the Kit Kat Cafe following the ceremony Mr. T. A. Simmons proposed the toast to the bride.

For a Mainland honeymoon the bride traveled in a green wool dress with gold topcoat, brown suede accessories, and corsage bouquet of yellow roses.

The couple will make their future home in Vancouver, but will reside at 1422 Fernwood Road for present.

King's Daughters Bazaar Successful

Approximately $300 was realized to carry on community welfare projects at the successful Christmas bazaar given by the King's Daughters, Saturday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A. Mrs. T. D. Roberts, district president, opened the affair and those in charge of stalls were Mrs. C. F. Lawrence, Mrs. A. Grieves, Mrs. Peter Sharp, Miss Pat Kingsbury and Miss Jean Roberts.

Tea was served from a lace covered cloth table, centred with a bowl of mauve and white mums, and flanked with mauve and white candles, the King's Daughters' colors. Mrs. A. M. Perry, Mrs. William Russell, Mrs. L. H. Hardie and Mrs. K. Roberts presided.

Weddings

PUGH—PATERSON

The marriage of Grace, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Paterson, 651 Belton Avenue, to S.C. Dennis Robert Pugh, R.C.N.V.R., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pugh, 1515 Bay Street, took place last evening at the home of the officiating minister, Reverend Percy Wills, Belmont Avenue. Given away by her father, the bride chose a turquoise blue two-piece wool dress with dolman sleeves, small brown hat trimmed with veil, brown accessories and gardenias en corsage. Her sister, Miss June Paterson, wearing a pale blue dressmaker suit with brown accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds and violets, was her only attendant. The bridegroom had his brother, Mr. William Pugh, as his best man. At a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. James Paterson proposed the toast. The couple will make their home in Victoria after a honeymoon on the Mainland, for which the bride donned a brown topcoat with tuxedo front of fur, over her wedding ensemble.

BEST-JOHANNSON

The wedding took place in Winnipeg on November 6, between Christine Johannson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Johannson, Gimli, Manitoba, and L.A.C. William H. (Bert) Best, R.C.A.F., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Best, 1472 Dallas Road, Victoria. The ceremony was performed in the home of the officiating minister, Rev. V. J. Eylands. A reception was held for family and immediate friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Best spent their honeymoon in Winnipeg before the groom returned to his station at Pennfield Riege, New Brunswick.

Budapest Styles Feature Wool

BUDAPEST, Nov. 24 (CP)—An interesting use of color combinations and the coupling of wool and fur in reversible for warmth against the severe Danube Valley Winters were among features of models shown in Budapest's first fashion show recently.

But more interesting than the full cut of sleeves in coats and afternoon frocks was the fact there was a fashion show at all.

There still is rubble in the streets, part of the building block is torn away, the elevator doesn't work. But Klara and Susi Rothschild managed to parade 80 garments through their amazingly smart shop done in grey and dusty pink, to the applause of British and American missions here.

How the sisters Rothschild, who used to clothe wives of Hungarian nobility and first ladies of Egypt, got the materials to rebuild their shop during the last two months or how they managed to get the furs and cloth that went into their garments is a story the Rothschild sisters don't tell.

Returning Home

L.A.W. Francis Watt, R.C.A.F. (W.D.), arrived in Canada last week aboard the Queen Elizabeth after two years' service overseas. L.A.W. Watt, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Watt, 1617 Wilmot Place, is spending a few days in Montreal before returning to Victoria.

Children's Underwear Shortage Continues

OTTAWA, Nov. 23 (CP).—Donald Gordon, Prices Board chairman, said tonight that Canadians must face the fact that although manufacturing output is higher than before the war demands for children's underwear, sleepers and other nightwear cannot be fully satisfied for some months yet.

Commenting on recent reports of shortages in these items, the Prices Board chairman noted he had repeatedly warned that dislocation of Canada's manufacturing resources could not be immediately overcome when the war ended.

The Prices Board had taken steps to overcome any "cases of actual hardship," he said. In such cases it had been arranged that if local offices of the board were informed with details of the circumstances involved, immediate efforts would be made to assist any person whose position required attention.

Sir Henry Drayton Will Open Bazaar

Sir Henry Drayton will open the annual Christmas bazaar of the Gorge Unit of the Red Cross Society being held in St. Martin's-in-the-Field Church Hall, Obed Avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. Tea will be served under convenership of Mrs. W. Gilbert. The toy stall will be one of the major attractions.

Children to See Giant Pantomime

"Jack and the Bean Stalk," the pantomime to be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre on the evenings of December 14 and 15, with a matinee for children on December 15, will be under the auspices of the Solarium Junior League.

Written and directed by Reginald Hincks and Warren Martin, the pantomime will feature a cast of talented artists, including members of Wynne Shaw's dancing academy. Some of the principal characters to be seen in the cast are Katherine Craig as Jack, Dick Reeves as the Giant and Archie McKinnon as Mother Goose.

DUBLIN (CP).—Mr. Setsuya Beppu, Japanese consul-general in Eire was ordered from Tokyo recently to close his office in Dublin and return home.

Bride Takes Vows By Candlelight

At a candlelight ceremony last evening at First United Church, the marriage of Halvarda Ruth "Bunty," younger daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Chatham, 182 Gorge Road West, to Lieut. George Neville Rivington, R.C.N.V.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Rivington, Carp, Ont., was solemnized by Rev. Dr. Hugh A. McLeod. Mr. J. Ingram Smith played appropriate organ music.

The bride, given away by her father, was lovely in a white faille gown fashioned with yoke and lily-point sleeves of lace, fitted waist and full, floor-length skirt. Her embroidered veil fell to her finger tips from a satin Juliet cap trimmed with orange blossoms. A bouquet of gardenias and white roses and a pendant of gold and sapphires belonging to her mother completed the bride's charming ensemble.

Mrs. R. C. Foster was her sister's matron of honor, wearing a turquoise blue taffeta frock with net overskirt, with a chic hat of matching ostrich tips. She carried a bouquet of gold chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom had Captain A. Hooks, Canadian Dental Corps, as his best man, and ushers were Lieut. Douglas Johnson and Lieut. Warren Finnegan, both R.C.N.V.R.

At a reception held at the Chatham home, the parents of both the bride and groom received with them. The bride used her husband's sword to cut the wedding cake. Dr. McLeod proposed the health of the bride.

For a honeymoon on the Mainland, the bride chose a rose cashmere wool dress with muskrat coat and brown accessories.

The couple will reside in the city.

Vows She'll Live To Be 100 Years

GRANDVIEW, Mo., Nov. 25 (AP)—Ninety-three years old today, sprightly Mrs. Martha E. Truman, mother of the President, follows The Congressional Record regularly "to learn what all those senators and representatives say," and vows "I'm going to live to be 100 years old."

"Harry sends me The Congressional record," she said with a glow of pride.

She used to read it herself "without glasses," she says, until an injury in a Fall last year affected her eyes. Now Mary Jane Truman, the President's sister, reads to her.

The Trumans, mother and daughter, live alone in a five-room modern yellow bungalow a block off the main street of Grandview, a town of 800. Half a mile away is the old Truman farm, where Mrs. Truman spent much of her life.

She married John A. Truman in 1881, and two years later they moved to Lamar, Mo., 100 miles south of here, where the President was born May 8, 1884. The Trumans lived there two years, then returned to Jackson County, where their other two children, J. Vivian and Mary Jane, were born. Her husband died in 1914, and Mrs. Truman remained on the farm until a few years ago when she moved into Grandview.

Note the new shirt sleeve of this suit, a prophetic detail.

Canadians Wed Dutch Girls

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 24 (CP).—More than one in every 20 Canadian soldiers returning home from Northwest Europe will take home with him a Dutch, Belgian or French bride.

Already more than 10,000 applications for permission to marry have been approved on the Continent by Canadian Army authorities, and applications have increased to a daily rate of 40 in spite of repatriation of more than half the original force.

Most of the new Canadian wives are Dutch—7,000 of them. They become citizens only upon entry into Canada.

All normal red tape attached to an army marriage is involved in these weddings, plus political "screening" to determine that the bride-to-be was not a collaborator during the Nazi occupation. Blood tests are required and more qualifications established by unit padres. Some 700 applications have been rejected for moral or political reasons.

Dutch weddings are usually double affairs with a civil ceremony in the town hall preceding religious services. Wives receive an army allowance, but the tendency is to let the allowances accrue in Canada.

With 30,000 wives and children awaiting movement to Canada from Britain, it is likely it will be some time before the European brides are shipped across the Atlantic. However, it is proposed to move some on Dutch freighters sailing direct to North America.

Soldiers may also take their fiancees to Canada at their own expense, but only after the Immigration and External Affairs Departments have approved.

Christmas Treat

Women's Auxiliary to the P.P.C.L.I. met recently, with Mrs. C. Pelly in the chair. Plans were discussed for the Christmas tree and annual get-together, which will be held in the Y.W.C.A. Saturday, December 22, from 2:30 till 5:30, Mrs. C. E. Lawrence convening. All parents of children of Patricias and ex-Patricias will phone G 7637 as soon as possible. Mrs. S. Mitchell will be the refreshment convener.

The auxiliary has undertaken the party again this year as in the war years, although it was originally conducted by the unit in peacetime. Annual meeting with election of officers will be held December 28.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Wilkinson Road United W.A. held a successful Christmas bazaar and tea in the schoolroom at the church. Stalls were convened by: Novelties, Mrs. D. Caudel; aprons, Mrs. F. W. Miller and Mrs. A. Marconi; superfluities, Mrs. Williamson; and home-cooking, Mrs. J. C. Thomson. Mrs. C. W. Condon convened the refreshments, assisted by Mrs. C. Madden and Miss Eva Jones.

Robin Wood to Play

Program arranged for Wednesday, at 8:30 p.m., at the Empress Hotel, will feature Robin Wood, pianist, who will be heard in the Schumann sonata, G Minor, "Pastoral and Capriccio," Scarlatti, two preludes, by Rachmaninoff: "Etude," in E Major, and "Scherzo," in C Sharp Minor, by Chopin.

Mr. Wood won the highest marks in Canada when taking his L.R.A.M. degree, which won for him a scholarship at the Royal Academy of Music, London. This has been held in abeyance because of the war, but Mr. Wood expects to travel to England in the early part of 1946.

Assisting artist, Natalie Minundie, mezzo soprano, is of Italian-Canadian parentage.

Phyllis Schud, Vancouver, will accompany the singer.

My Neighbor Says:

Most cuts of lean "utility" beef respond to braising—moist heat cookery—rather than to broiling or roasting. They need longer braising time than more heavily fatted beef. Laying strips of fat over top of utility meats before roasting improves flavor.

Love is a Wonderful Thing!

THIS WIFE IS SMART. She knows how to guard her marriage happiness . . . never endangers it by carelessness about feminine hygiene. Yes, her doctor told her that "once-and-then" care isn't enough. He advised using Lysol disinfectant for douching—always. Cleanses thoroughly. Deodorizes. A proved germ-killer—far more dependable than salt, soda, or other homemade solutions. Yet so gentle for douching, it won't harm sensitive vaginal tissues—just follow easy directions. More women use Lysol for feminine hygiene than any other method. Try it.

Christmas Seals to Help Fight Disease

Government administrator of the public's health in this province is Provincial Secretary George Pearson. Since he took on this department four years ago he has learned by experience the value of prevention when it comes to medicine. He knows full well that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. He has seen statistics to prove the truth of this adage.

Mr. Pearson this week advised the public to buy Christmas seals. He knows as well as any man that the money derived from this source is going to eventually stamp out tuberculosis, if the public will co-operate by getting X-rayed.

In asking the co-operation of each and every citizen, the Provincial Secretary says "the British Columbia Tuberculosis Society is doing a grand work, the cost of which is provided for through the funds accruing from the sale of Christmas seals. In British Columbia we have a very complete evidence of this work in the mobile chest X-ray survey units operated throughout the province. The value of these drives in our fight against tuberculosis is inestimable. We have to thank the buyers of Christmas seals for these."

Travel Film Popular

The Provincial Government Travel Bureau has been requested to produce another copy of the popular travelogue, "Vancouver Island" taken by C. R. D. Ferris, bureau photographer, and released in 1942.

Sent to the Bell Telephone Company, Montreal, in 1944, the film had 98 showings in Ontario and Quebec to 19,492 persons, and has become worn out. A new copy is being made by the Travel Bureau.

The same film was sent to the Los Angeles Travel Bureau early this year, and proved very popular.

Early in December, a color film, "The Caribou District," will be returned from Toronto, where it is being processed for sound. The first showing is expected to be at Vancouver.

Little Stories for Bedtime

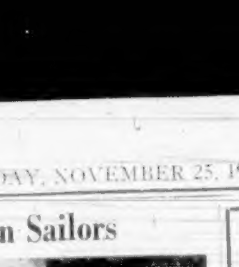
BY THORNTON W. BURGESS

PRICKLY PORKY MAKES GOOD HIS BOAST

Farmer Brown's boy was tired and he was cross. He had tramped and tramped through the Green Forest in search of Prickly Porky, but not so much as one of his little spears had he found. You see, he had not been looking in the right place. He had not once thought to look up in the tops of the trees, for he knew nothing about porcupines or their habits. Finally he sat down to rest under a tall poplar tree.

"If I could just get a glimpse of that fellow I'd fill him full of shot," growled Farmer Brown's boy.

Now he thought that no one heard him. But he was mistaken. Dozens of little ears heard him. Striped Chipmunk, peeping out of a hole in the ground not three feet away, heard him and shivered as he rolled his bright little eyes up to the top of the tall poplar. Peter Rabbit, squatting behind a thick bush, rolled his eyes up to the top of a tall poplar and shivered, too. So did Johnny Chuck and Jimmy Skunk and Happy Jack Squirrel and Billy Mink and Bobby Coon and a lot of other little meadow people and forest folk who were hiding close by. Reddy Fox didn't shiver. He just grinned wickedly and waited, taking great care to keep out of sight. Down in his heart he was afraid of Prickly Porky and he hoped that Farmer Brown's boy would make good his dreadful threat. And up in the top of the tall poplar someone else heard the dreadful threat. It was Prickly Porky himself.



"Well, you certainly have got nerve."

He stopped eating and looked down at Farmer Brown's boy and his gun. He saw Reddy Fox grinning and the other little meadow people and forest folk shivering with fright. Prickly Porky smiled to himself. "So they think I'm a boaster because I said I'm not afraid, do they?" he muttered. Then very slowly, for he never hurries, he began to climb the tree.

Farmer Brown's boy heard his claws rattling on the tree and looked up. He was so surprised that for a minute he just stared foolishly. Then he sprang to his feet and threw up his gun. Everyone shut their eyes and put their hands over their ears—everyone but Reddy Fox, who grinned more wickedly than ever. But still Prickly Porky kept right on climbing down.

But Farmer Brown's boy didn't shoot. "I'll wait until he gets nearer and then I'll be sure of him," said he.

So he waited, and all the time Prickly Porky kept right on climbing down. Farmer Brown's boy did not know what to make of it. "It's a shame to shoot him, for I can kill him with a club," said he, and reached for a stick. And still Prickly Porky came down.

When he reached the ground what do you think he did? Why, he walked right over and sniffed at the gun of Farmer Brown's boy, and gave a funny little grunt, as if to say: "You won't hurt me," and then he turned his back and slowly walked over to another tree and began to climb.

The freckled face of Farmer Brown's boy broke into a broad laugh. "Well," said he, "you certainly have got nerve! You seem to be minding your own business, so I guess I won't interfere."

And shouldering his gun he tramped off through the Green Forest.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Nov. 24 (AP)—The stock market today ended one of its worst weeks of the year, with declining tendencies still predominating.

Extreme setbacks running to more than 2 points were shaded in most cases at the close and a few plus [illegible] shares were the smallest since October 20 and compared with 1,090,000 last Saturday.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off .5 of a point at 73.5, its third successive drop. The net loss for the week was two full points, largest since the period concluded March 24.

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG, Nov. 24 (CP)—Rye futures prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange increased today in irregular trading that was more active and broader than it has been in recent sessions.

Values turned lower in the early trading, but rallied late in the session on buying attributed to shippers and local interests. Near the close, however, trading turned dull.

Closing prices were 2 1-4 cents higher with December $1.86 7-8, May $1.86 3-4 and July 1.77.

In the export market United Kingdom sources purchased 300,000 bushels of Canadian wheat and there were indications more business for Great Britain was in the offering.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, Nov. 24 (AP)—The rye futures market, nervous and affected easily by small transactions, did an about-face today and climbed around 2 cents a bushel at times on some professional buying. The market had been fractionally lower in early dealings.

Wheat firmed somewhat, with cash demand good and traders believing export demand for both wheat and wheat flour will continue high. Oats were weak most of the session, but buying on the downturns caused slight recoveries at times.

Colds and Pneumonia

By DR. J. B. WARREN

A knock under the floor boards of a car shows trouble in the rear axle or rear end of a car and requires immediate attention or motorist may get stranded miles from anywhere.

The common cold starts with a cough and sniffling or a stuffy nose. If the individual neglects this cold, does nothing to cleanse out the intestine, does nothing to cause sweating, continues to eat heavy meals, the cold may hang on and bronchopneumonia or pneumonia follow. Don't neglect a cold.

PLANETARY GUIDE FOR SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1945

Keywords for the day: Relaxation, sociability, pleasure.

Sunday in General: The period from midnight of Saturday to 11:42 a.m. Sunday comprises the most fortunate portion of the day, especially for those who want to travel, forward educational, distant or religious. The rest of the day (while not as important as the foregoing) can be devoted to advantage, to relaxation, rest, pleasure, sociability, planning and deciding.

If November 25 is your Birthdate: "Many happy returns." Famous persons born on this date include: Ben B. Lindsey, jurist and reformer; Ethelbert Nevin, composer; Andrew Carnegie, industrialist.

Your Year Ahead: This should be a favorable year for you especially in connection with things or people at a distance; travel. Make friends, seek co-operation, be active, enterprising in pursuit of your aspirations.

PLANETARY GUIDE FOR MONDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1945

Keywords for the Day: Discrimination, tact, judgment.

Monday in General: This day lends itself best to the pursuit of regular and minor tasks and calls for tact in dealing with others as there is a tendency to create hurt feelings without intending to do so. Steer clear of involvements, confusion, complications.

If November 26 is your Birthdate: "Many happy returns." Famous persons born on this date include: Fred Astaire, dancer and movie actor; Frances Dee, movie actress; Seth W. Cheney, engraver and artist.

Your Year Ahead: Ambitions are stimulated and progress is best made through the assistance of friends and close associates. Be extra tactful with elders and superiors.

Stocks and Bond Prices Are Rarely Static

Prices of Stocks and Bonds fluctuate with the ebb and flow of an industry and the progress or retrogression of Companies within that industry.

Short or long term prospects for Corporation Stocks and Bonds should be a matter of concern to all holders.

For this reason investors should periodically seek information regarding Companies in which they are interested.

Our Statistical Department will supply this information upon request.

The Mothering Sympathy

that opens the door of the future for stricken childhood

Little ones for whom the accident of birth, the death of parents, or the grim hand of poverty or neglect has closed the door of happiness and opportunity, find in The Salvation Army the mothering care which chance has denied them.

In its Maternity Homes, its Children's Homes, its Summer Camps and other group activities, The Army applies the restoring balm of pity and protection to blighted childhood, and opens the way to happy, wholesome living and good citizenship.

Wherever want, mischance or misbehavior have maimed the human body or soul, there you will find the understanding heart and the human touch of The Salvation Army.

This great work of human salvage needs your support, as never before. Give generously when your canvasser calls.

More People Needed

CAPETOWN, (CP) — South Africa has been given "a colossal push in the future would depend upon increased internal demand from a ... population. While many were relying upon increasing non-European purchasing power thus potential field would only develop gradually.

Ir Askew said the Union was lagging behind other countries in far-sighted immigration and the country's growth was being frustrated. The health of non-Europeans should demand the attention of industrialists as they provide the reservoir of labor required by industry.

S. F. Waterson, minister of economic development, stressed the potential market for South African goods within the African continent. He urged expansion of trade with other African territories and said the government wanted every effort to be made to maintain and expand close wartime collaboration.

...rialists should take the opportunities presented them for increasing her trade. Premier Smuts told the convention of the South African Federated Chamber of Industries at Pretoria.

There is no need to fear that any new international trade agreements will have an adverse effect on the country's progress, the premier said. Industrialists could go ahead with confidence and they would have the backing of the government.

"We want more people and we want full employment for them in the future," Field Marshal Smuts added.

The plea for a larger population by increased immigration was taken up by Minister Askew, the convention chairman, who said industries ... start. He said the Board of Trade has refused to allow him to manufacture cars in the factories where he formerly produced arms and munitions.

Plans Low Cost Car

LONDON (CP)—Denis Kendall, engineer and Independent member of Parliament for Grantham, plans to shake the British motor industry with a new "people's car" costing only £100 ($450). With purchase tax, however, the total price to British buyers will be £128 ($576).

Within three months of the start of production Kendall says he will have 50 cars a week rolling off the line. This number will be trebled in six months and multiplied four-fold in nine months.

Peak production will be 10,000 cars a year.

At present, however, Randall is uncertain when production will

Like Music, Ballet

LONDON (CP)—Good music is booming in London and in towns and big cities all over the country.

The 51st promenade season at the Royal Albert Hall ended after 49 concerts which more than 300,000 persons attended. The great hall was sold out every night and on many occasions hundreds of persons were turned away.

Ballet, too, is included in the boom and London recently had the unprecedented experience of three ballet companies all playing to capacity. Reasons for the boom are said to be:

The general level of musical education is higher now than ever; thousands of young persons have learned to appreciate it in their schools and at gramophone clubs; many servicemen and women have been taught the meaning of good music.

Many persons are turning to concerts and ballets as the best relief from the strain of war, rationing and shopping queues.

Yield Giant Fish

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—Two big "fish" came into the fish market here. One was a giant rock cod, of Manning River. It weighed 340 pounds.

This is not a record for these great cods. In 1939 a specimen weighing 560 pounds was taken in the Clarence River.

The other big fellow was an 18-pound crab taken by lobster fishermen off Triabunna on the east coast of Tasmania. Here again it was no record. In 1913 fishermen caught a 22-pound crab on Eagle Reef, 30 miles further south.

This Tasmanian crab, Pseudocarcinus, runs almost a dead-heat with the giant spider crab of Japan as the world's largest crab. The Tasmanian crab has the largest crab claws in the world, one of which is always bigger than the other.

For Merchant Ships

LONDON—A special radar set is to be produced for United Kingdom merchant ships. A Government-appointed scientific committee has prepared a performance specification which has now been sent to the manufacturers of radar apparatus. In the meantime arrangements have been made to provide shipowners who require them with radar sets manufactured for the British Admiralty during the war, which are suitable for use in merchant ships. Other forms of radio navigational aids which will make Britain's merchant fleet the safest in the world are also under investigation.

Is Abiding Glory

LONDON (CP)—Viscount Wavell, president-general of the Poetry Society (Incorporated), said in a message to the Canadian centres of the society: "There heritage of great poetry is one of the abiding glories of the British race, so that love of poetry should continue to be a binding link between all peoples of the British Commonwealth. The president is glad to hear of the increased activities of the constituent groups in Nova Scotia, Vancouver, Winnipeg and elsewhere."

Five-Year-Old Knows War's Horrors

Five-year-old Jimmy Cairns is well acquainted with the horrors of war. His mother was killed in the boat in which they were leaving Malaya and he spent eight hours in the water before he was rescued. His next years were spent with his father in a Jap internment camp in Sumatra. Rescued by the British, he was flown to Singapore by Theraf. He is seen leaving the airport following his arrival at Singapore.

Benefit to Farmers

The work of the Science Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture, is directed toward the solution of practical problems of agriculture through the application of scientific investigation. The service is responsible for the maintenance and development of the National Collection of Insects, the Dominion Arboretum, and an economic herbarium. It deals with problems relating to the ravages of insect pests and diseases affecting plants and animals; the deterioration of plant and animal products through the invasion of fungi and bacteria, the nutritional requirements of plants and animals, and the chemistry and micromology of soils, foods and dairy products.

The service carries out chemical and biological determinations required in the administration of various Dominion Acts and regulations, and administers the Destructive Insect and Pests Act, including the inspection of imported and exported plants and plant products, and the establishment of quarantine and control measures for introduced pests and diseases. The work in the various laboratories of the Science Service is co-ordinated with agricultural research undertaken by the Experimental Farms Service and by other units of the Department of Agriculture, and with certain special research projects undertaken by the National Research Council and the universities and colleges of agriculture.

The Science Service includes the research Divisions of Animal Pathology, Bacteriology and Dairy Research; Botany and Plant Pathology, Chemistry, Entomology, and Plant Protection. Centralized accounting and personnel services for these six units are maintained in the Administrative Division.

Products to Britain

From the crop of vegetables grown in Canada in 1944, sizeable quantities have been dehydrated and shipped to the British Ministry of Food. The total value of the vegetables dehydrated was $5,850,579. This price includes the purchase price of the raw vegetables, the cost of processing and the freight charges from the processing plants to Canadian seaboard points. In the shipments, made through the Special Products Board were 9,000,000 pounds of potatoes, 1,851,000 pounds of cabbage, 888,550 pounds of carrots, 763,000 pounds of turnips, 62,000 pounds of onions, 4,260 pounds of spinach and 155,600 pounds of beets.

From last year's crop of fruit, the board also shipped to the British Ministry 5,328,700 pounds of evaporated apples, processed from fruit grown in Nova Scotia, 166,842 barrels of fresh apples from Nova Scotia, 52,000 boxes of British Columbia apples, 200,000 pounds of British Columbia strawberries, and 1,400,000 of British Columbia raspberries chemically preserved for making jam. Shipments of Ontario grown white beans totaled 443,000 bushels and 1,600 cases of Ontario grown canned corn was also sent.

The dehydration of the vegetables was done in 13 plants located in eight of the provinces, the exception being Saskatchewan. Total value of the shipments outlined was $10,574,323.

Potato Situation

The decline in actual planted acreage of potatoes from 1944 to 1945 was 27,500 acres, more than 5 per cent. The decline in yield, states the Current Review of Agricultural Conditions in Canada, was much greater, from 153 bushels to 115 bushels per acre, or a decrease of 25 per cent. These factors combined to indicate a crop of 58,640,000 bushels in 1945 as against 82,365,000 bushels a year ago, the reduction being 29 per cent. Because crops of 70-75 million bushels have appeared to satisfy normal requirements in recent years, the prospect is for a scarcity of potatoes in months to come, with imports partly filling the gap. In every province the crop was less. Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Ontario having decreases of more than 30 per cent. In the two main shipping provinces, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick, the total reduction was nearly seven million bushels. In Quebec, the decline was 10 million bushels.

Lambing Attention

PALMERSTON, N.Z.—Largely because of better attention to his flock at lambing time, through going round the ewes twice daily where formerly he went once, a Wairarapa (New Zealand) sheep farmer has increased his lambing returns by about 10 per cent. This has been the case in the last four seasons, during which he has kept careful records. Another reason given by the flock owner, Mr. A. Ian Speedy, of Masterton, for the increased percentages in his maintenance of the ewes in more even condition through the Winter, and better attention to ewe lambs, including the twins, past the hogget stage.

During the past fiscal year, the National Film Board has completed a total of 308 film productions, including one and two reel documentaries, newsreels and newsclips.

Dehorning Cattle

(Experimental Farms News)

The annual loss to the cattle industry in Canada due to horns has been estimated at well over a million ... great economic importance and is a matter to which every cattleman should give serious consideration. Horns on cattle not only make their handling more difficult, and are a source of danger to other cattle and to the cattleman, but they account for injuries, which, on dressed carcasses, can be seen as large bruises, necessitating trimming and loss.

The simplest, easiest, most humane and best way to dehorn is to use caustic potash when the animal is about ten days old, states H. E. Wilson, Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, Alberta. At that age the horns may be detected as small buttons or scurs which are loosely attached to the skull. The caustic potash is sold in pencil form and is procurable at drug stores at a small cost. In addition to the caustic potash, a pair of scissors, a small jar of vaseline and a tumbler ... or water are needed to perform the operation. This practice of dehorning the calves might not apply to range conditions because of the time involved in the operation but it does apply on the average dairy or stock farm.

At the Lacombe Station where a herd of purebred Shorthorn cattle is maintained, all female calves are dehorned with caustic potash at about ten days of age. First of all, the hair surrounding the young horn or button, covering an area of about two inches in diameter, is removed with scissors. To prevent the caustic from spreading to the surrounding skin, or running into the eyes, a ring of vaseline is applied to the area immediately surrounding the horn button. Heavy brown paper is wrapped around the stick of caustic to prevent it burning the fingers. After the skin is prepared the end of the stick of caustic is dipped into the water to moisten it. The calf is then made secure and the moist stick of caustic potash is rubbed gently over each button, allowing a few minutes to elapse between rubbings. Rubbing is kept on until the skin ruptures and begins to bleed slightly, an indication that the button has been injured to such an extent that it will not develop further. This method of horn removal will stop horn growth with a degree of certainty if performed with care and not done hurriedly. A good job of burning is imperative, if the button is to be destroyed so that no stubs or misshapen horns can develop.

Calves should be kept separated for a few days afterwards. If the caustic is used properly, a scab will form over the button and drop off a few days later, after which the wounds should be smeared over with vaseline.

Producing Own Seed

More and more of the pastures and hayfields in Canada which help to feed livestock are being sown in Canadian produced seed. The Dominion Department of Agriculture says that if the wartime trend of increasing the domestic production of seed continues, Canadian farmers will no longer be obliged to depend on imported supplies of seed to grow grasses, clovers and alfalfa. This year growers are harvesting a record crop of timothy seed. The crop is expected to total about 10 million pounds, five million pounds more than in 1944. Production of Kentucky blue grass, Canada blue grass and creeping red fescue, is also higher this year than in 1944. The harvest of alfalfa seed will probably be lower this year than last.

Alsike clover seed is expected to be one-third higher in 1945 than in 1944. No estimate is yet available on red clover seed of which the increased acreage may be balanced by the fact that the crop has been late and subject to frost damage. The crop of sweet clover seed this year appears to be slightly down from that of 1944.

The 1945 crop of these forage crop seeds is not only sufficient to meet most of Canada's needs, but will also provide a surplus for export to Britain and continental Europe and for distribution through U.N.R.R.A.

Harvesting Months

There is not a month in the year in which a wheat harvest does not take place in some part of the world. Below are the dates of the wheat harvest in various countries:

January, Australia, New Zealand, Argentine, Chile; February, India; March, India, Upper Egypt; April, Mexico, Cuba, Lower Egypt, Syria, Persia, Asia Minor; May, Morocco, Algeria, Tunis, northern parts of Asia Minor, China, Japan, Texas, Florida; June, The Mediterranean peninsulas and South of France, California, Oregon, Utah, and the greater part of Central and Eastern United States territory south of 40 degrees, Afghanistan, Japan; July, France, Austria-Hungary, Southern Russia, the northern parts of the United States; August, Canada, England, Belgium, Netherlands, Germany; September, Scotland, Sweden, Norway, Russia; October, Finland, Northern Russia; November, Peru, South Africa; December, Burma, South Australia.

Meeting Next Week

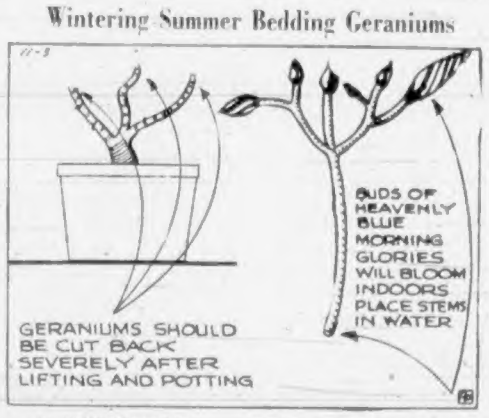
Change in the administration of the British Columbia Federation of Agriculture, providing for 15 directors to be elected on a community basis, instead of being elected at large will be decided when the 12th annual meeting is held in the Hotel Vancouver, Vancouver, B.C., Wednesday and Thursday, November 28 and 29.

The proposed representation by commodities, as recommended in a resolution from the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association, which will be considered at an extraordinary general meeting Wednesday evening, stipulates two directors from each of the following branches of production: Field crops, fruit, dairy products, farm animals, poultry and eggs, vegetables, vegetable and other seeds and one from "miscellaneous."

The resolution also stipulates that the board of directors shall elect the president and vice-president and an executive committee, consisting of these officers and five other directors.

Canada's trade with China is important. In 1939, we imported a total of $2,773,861 and exported $2,636,386; these figures excluding gold.

Wintering Summer Bedding Geraniums



BUDS OF HEAVENLY BLUE MORNING GLORIES WILL BLOOM INDOORS PLACE STEMS IN WATER
GERANIUMS SHOULD BE CUT BACK SEVERELY AFTER LIFTING AND POTTING

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Released by Central Press Association

Geraniums which have bloomed all Summer outdoors deserve and need a vacation now. This means they should be taken up and placed in the cellar for the Winter.

This "rest cure" for geraniums is essential for after blooming all Summer geraniums cannot be expected to bloom during the Winter, even if given every care in the house.

Geraniums should be lifted with a ball of earth and potted. Then cut the plant back severely, as illustrated in the accompanying Garden-Graph.

For the first month after bringing indoors, let the cut-back plants stand in a cool, light room. Water them once a week.

In November place the geraniums in a dark place in the cellar. Water just enough to keep them from drying out. Keep the plants in the cellar until May, when they can be planted outdoors again.

If you have a vine of Heavenly Blue Morning Glories you will find them covered with buds at this time of the year. Instead of letting these buds be killed off by frosts cut the bud stems, as illustrated, bring indoors and place in a container of water.

The buds will blossom indoors just as beautifully as they would have in fine weather outdoors. Keep the opened flowers picked off as they wilt.

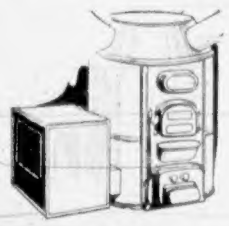
A Steel Furnace CAN'T "Smoke"


The outward appearance of your furnace has nothing to do with its efficiency. The question is—what's inside the sheet metal casing? If it's a cast iron furnace it will start to "smoke" sooner or later, and probably sooner. If it's a welded one-piece, all-steel furnace it just CAN'T SMOKE. Ask us about heating your new home or plant—or find out about replacing your old cast furnace with a Pacific Steel Furnace. We figure exactly what your home needs before we do the job—and when we've done it, it stays done for life.

Clippers in 8-1 Victory On Home Ice

NANAIMO, Nov. 24 (CP)—Coach Lee Dennis' Nanaimo Clippers lengthened their lead in the Pacific Coast Junior Hockey League tonight when they defeated Vancouver [illegible] on the Nanaimo rink with one of the 1945-46 season's largest crowds on hand. About 2,000 fans saw the contest.

Coupled with their last tiff with Vancouver, when they won a 5-0 shutout, Clippers now have a 2-0 lead in the first period and were out in front by a one-goal margin at the end of the second frame.

The Nanaimo scorers ran their margin to 4-0 before White Spots rallied their lone counter at 2:28 in the third stanza. Vern Bannon notched Clippers' third, Nanaimo marker, with Jack Richardson netting a pair. Les Mitchell and Robbie Robertson counted singletons.

Connie McBeth, taking Jack Hopfe's assist, scored White Spots' lone goal.

Nanaimo's victory put the Clipper team a full eight points ahead of their opponents in the Coast loop. Displaying better passing plays and a closer-knit defence, the Island seamen were much the better club on the night's game.

Bev Bentley, in the Clipper net, turned in a brilliant performance but Sam Hergest at the other end of the rink had pucks to [illegible] handle which he did in an effective manner. With benefit of better defence White Spots could have kept their loss to a much lower score.

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP)—The 7,000-ton American troop transport Leland Stanford, with 500 United States soldiers aboard, ran aground last night in Goodwin Sands at the northern end of the Straits of Dover, the War Shipping Administration said today.

A WSA spokesman said he did not know whether it would be necessary to jettison the cargo to determine whether the vessel could be refloated until high tide when an attempt would be made to [illegible] the vessel.

Beaten Japan Near Starving

MONTREAL, Nov. 24 (CP)—A description of the people of Japan, a continent of scenes of food and warmth was given today by Maj. Ann Duckett, of Montreal on his return home after two months as Canadian public relations liaison officer at general headquarters in Tokio.

She [illegible] with The Canadian Press that the Japanese are "practically starving." There is a shortage of rice and other food and prospects for replenishment are not great.

Maj. Duckett, who went to the Far East from Europe where he was chief press censor for the Canadian Army in the field, followed the first American occupation troops into Japan by a week and was the last of the Canadian military personnel stationed there to leave.

In Japan only the most modern buildings are standing and some of them are burned out, he said. Homeless Japanese are living in corrugated tin huts, built from scraps salvaged from the rubble.

In Tokio a black market operates in full swing and prices are fantastic. Kimonas which sold at the equivalent of $12 when he arrived, cost $120 when he left. The people of Tokio appear unconcerned about their future and queues blocks long form every day for the movies.

Maj. Duckett said the Japanese realize they are beaten but do not seem to know how badly. They believe the emperor ended the war and still look upon him as their god, kneeling and bowing when they pass his palace.

Maj. Duckett, who was in Manila for a week before he went to Tokio, was among [illegible] Canadian prisoners of war [illegible] there and in Japan.

"One of the most pleasant surprises for the Canadians was to find they would receive back pay for all the years they were prisoners," he said. "Many of them didn't know they would be getting that."

Transfer Command Of Pacific Fleet

PEARL HARBOR, Nov. 24 (AP)—Aboard the submarine Menhaden in these confined waters where the Japanese struck four years ago, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz transferred command of the United States Pacific Fleet today to Admiral Raymond A. Spruance.

Nimitz, the grey, grave Texan who took over the battered crippled fleet not quite four years ago and saw it grow under his control into the world's most powerful sea force, will become Chief of Naval Operations.

A veteran submariner, Nimitz chose to make the transfer of command aboard a submarine in the calm, sunlit blue waters which on December 7, 1941 were churned by enemy bombs and littered with the wreckage of American warships.

It was a quietly dramatic [illegible] mutual ceremony. Nimitz read his orders, spoke briefly to [illegible] men of the fleet who had [illegible] him to victory, and [illegible] over the fleet to Spruance, who [illegible] war as a commander of Central Division 5 and rose to command of Allied naval forces in Japanese waters.

Hundreds Board Big Cruiser Uganda at H.M.C. Dockyard

It was "open house" on board HMCS. Uganda yesterday afternoon between 1.30 and 4.30 p.m. Although cold and windy, hundreds of persons boarded the 1,800-ton warship at H.M.C. Dockyard Esquimalt. They asked questions about the armament, action taken and other points of interest, and officers were on hand to answer.

Victorians will have another opportunity to inspect the 56-foot, 3-gun armed cruiser during the same hours this afternoon. The event is being held in conjunction with Navy Week, which ends today.

Tied up at the C.P.R. dock in the Inner Harbor are two other fighting ships of the Royal Canadian Navy, also open today for inspection by the public. They are the frigate H.M.C.S. Matane, and the fleet destroyer, H.M.C.S. Crusader.

Other Navy Week activities yesterday included a parade of a Royal Canadian Navy detachment, the R.C.N. Band, Sea Cadets, and W.R.C.N.S. A dance for all three services was held last night at [illegible] Robert House.

H.M.C.S. Uganda was built in the United States in a British shipyard and was commissioned for the Royal Navy under lend-lease arrangements in December 1942. Work commenced on the vessel in 1939. Operating as a unit of the Royal Navy, she was a victim of a flying bomb off Salerno in 1943. Fifteen men lost their lives. After complete repairs had been made in South Carolina the ship was recommissioned becoming part of the Royal Canadian Navy. She is commanded by Capt. E. R. Mainguy, O.B.E., R.C.N., Duncan. The ship arrived here from the Pacific last August 10.

Atomic Revolution

With World War II at an end the businessman's paradise of almost universal scarcity begins to fade before a looming nightmare of overloaded warehouses and mass unemployment. It now becomes increasingly apparent that the problem of distribution can be solved only by a unified application of science to the social order.

"I'll Be Seeing You" Is Unusual Love Story

Based on the timeless theme of love and romance it might well be the setting of any dreamy theme song, "I'll Be Seeing You" has been produced by David O. Selznick and directed by John Cromwell. It is a drama of a love that is a beautiful thing.

A scene from the heartwarming comedy hit, Over 21, starring Irene Dunne and Alexander Knox which opens tomorrow at the Oak Bay and Plaza Theatres.

Pat O'Brien Star At Atlas Theatre

Pat O'Brien, who has had many tough fights on the screen, decides the "toughest" one of his career for himself in his own production, "Secret Command," which he and Pete Ryan made for Columbia release. Pat's big battle with the heavy in this picture takes place under water. Before shooting the scene, the star went through a week with exercises on how to work under water. Secret Command, co-starring Carole Landis and Chris O'Brien, opens tomorrow at the Atlas Theatre.

Others in the cast are Glenn Morris, Wonnie Ford, Matt McHugh and Barton MacLane.

Addresses Students

Capt. Wallace B. Creer, engineer officer of HMCS Prince Robert, in a talk to students of Mount View High School on Tuesday, described the work of the small cruiser during the war.

EVERGREEN

VETERAN'S OPPORTUNITY

$2100 — Here's a home ideally suited for a veteran of retired couple. Situated in one of the nicest spots in Saanich, it has two and one-half acres of fertile black soil, with young fruit trees and bulbs. There is a very comfortable cottage with two large rooms plus utility room, all very neat and clean—both inside and out. The present owners are leaving part of the furniture, which is also included in the price.

$3500 — Close in town. Here is a five-roomed home. Just recently painted and redecorated. It has been well kept and is in really good shape—all ready for the next owner to take over.

$4750 — A seven-roomed home in a good district. Four nice rooms downstairs and three bedrooms upstairs. Stucco semi-bungalow of very good construction. Full basement with furnace. POSSESSION 24 HOURS.

$5500 — Large house of seven rooms. Four rooms upstairs and three large rooms downstairs. NOW VACANT. This is one of the older, well-built homes of real good construction. Convenient location. New furnace installed.

$6000 — If your need is a large home, either for income or family home, then this is the home to see before you buy. Four rooms up, four rooms and utility room down. Large basement with good furnace. Situated on high ground and nice surroundings in a secluded area. Possession January 30, 1946. Upstairs rented at $35 by temporary tenant. Two-car garage. Upon inspection, you will see that repairs are up and both interior and exterior are spotlessly clean. Telephone for appointment. A best buy. EXCLUSIVE.

$6150 — Lovely home, nine liveable acres. A six-roomed modern home, six years old, in excellent locality. Living-room, dining-room, three bedrooms, garage in basement, five fruit trees, chicken house. Truly a good buy and worth seeing. Immediate possession.

AT 1 P.M. SHARP
AT WESTHOLME
Vancouver Island

Of his entire herd of 20 head of high-producing, registered Jerseys, four of them are silver medal cows and one of them has just qualified for a gold medal. Quite a few of them have just freshened, others to freshen shortly. Also a few good heifers and the young stock bull, a grandson of Golden Standard II. There are also a few good young grade cows and heifers, some of them just freshened.

A nicely matched team of Clydes and Harness, Steel Wagon, Stick Wagon, Disc, Spring-Tooth Harrows, Drag Harrows, Chain Harrows, Mower and Rake, Seed Drill, Manure Spreader, also Milk Cooler, 8 and 10-gallon Milk Cans, and other Dairy Equipment, etc.

TERMS CASH

Auctioneer's Note—This is another great opportunity for buyers to purchase animals of high-producing qualities. A number of them are silver medal cows and one of them has a gold medal. In looking over their breeding, one cannot fail to see their great background, including the young stock bull, who is a son of Babbacombe Silver Standard II, by Golden Standard II, a three-star bull.

Since coming home from overseas, Colonel Thorne has taken great care in selecting these animals, but on account of ill health has been forced to give up everything, including this beautiful dairy farm comprising 250 acres, 60 acres of which are bottom land, and anyone interested in this farm should write or see Colonel Thorne at the farm.

The Farm is on the Highway, close to Bell-McKinnon Road
